

MINNESOTA JUDICIAL BRANCH

State Family Early Case Management/
Early Neutral Evaluation Program

Rice ENE Roster Application Process and Criteria

- I. Roster Application Process:
 - a. Applications will be submitted through the PASS Program, using the universal Supplemental Application.
 - b. Applications will be pre-screening in PASS by the State Family ECM/ENE Program Manager.
 - c. If Rule 114 qualification and ENE Training status and ride-alongs are verified and there are no “red flags,” Program Manager may approve the application in PASS.
 - d. If ENE training is missing, the Program Manager will reject the application and provide information on where/how the applicant may remedy the training requirement
 - e. If Rule 114 qualifications or ride-alongs are missing, the Program Manager may determine if the county is a “shortage area”.
 - i. If there is no shortage areas, the Program Manager will reject the application and provide information on where/how the applicant may remedy missing requirements.
 - ii. If there is a shortage area, the Program Manager will document whether the applicant is willing to remedy the deficiencies and provide information on how the applicant may remedy the missing requirements.
 - iii. If provisional approval is granted, the Program Manager will verify and track that deficiencies have been remedied within one year of having been added to the roster.
 - f. If minimums are met but there are “red flags,” the Program Manager will forward application to the Rice ECM/ENE Program Committee for a decision on the application.
 - g. Depending on the current needs of the county for additional roster members, the Program Manager may make decisions on applications as they are submitted or pool applications to consider as a group.
 - h. “Red flags” include, but are not limited to, prior ethics violations, removal from another program’s roster for misconduct (but not for removal for failure to have been selected or failure to use a calendaring system), appearance of a lack of expertise/ experience to give a valid evaluative opinion as to what a court would do, etc.

- i. When the Committee is making a decision on an application to the roster, any providers on the committee shall be permitted to participate in application discussions but not be permitted to vote to avoid the appearance of conflicts of interest.
- j. A shortage area exists whenever there are less than six males or six female SENE providers or six FENE providers—and may exist for only for a certain gender or certain services as needs additional providers.

II. Additional Considerations:

- a. All written roster criteria and process, plus completed application should be provided to State ECM/ENE Program Manager for inclusion on MJB ECM/ENE public website.
- b. Status of Rosters (officially opened or closed or affirmatively soliciting applications, etc.) should be communicated to the State ECM/ENE Program Manager for inclusion on MJB ECM/ENE public website and for the Manager to have a public announcement issued.
- c. The State ECM/ENE Program Manager will include roster status and solicitations in general outreach work to providers/potential providers to support the local program. On request, the Program Manager will also provide additional, targeted recruitment specific for the local program.

III. Roster Criteria:

- a. Minimum requirements:
 - i. Be a Rule 114 Qualified Mediator and Evaluator and stay qualified.
 - ii. Be in good standing with the ADR Ethics Board.
