Prince Rogers Nelson

ESTATE

Dear Judge Cain,

This is not easy for me and I need confirmation to put my family back together and as part of my defense, I am sending part of "my mom's" history. "Miss Helen Camper." how a sad mistake can hurt a life time. I live miles away from my daughter but I feel her pain every day. which is why this is so important to me. I am usually quiet.

But I can't keep quiet on this.

I mean you have a mother who raised you, how can you forget your mother died Dec. 16, 2004 the birthday of the niece you were entrusted with. Then, how can a person disown a person without the name "Lichman" "Lichman" you acknowledge the name without the originality. That's absurd.

By the way. I met the Hills and the Jacksons through my sister Dorisene Camper, who lived down the street from 8333 Alpine also.

Since then, I've been lied on, set up, butchered and locked down, with no help from anyone. Please, grant my child the truth and justice she deserve. Please help me to ease the years of pain, my life has caused my child.

She deserves to say "my name is Tomika Camper Nelson" and a darn good nurse to boot.

So I'm "pleading". Please allow the test to be done, so I can give her conformation.

Sincerely
Shirley F. Camper

*God is good and remember this for no one else but He,
Can really know what's best for us — or why some things must be.
He knows just why the winds must blow or why the rain must fall,
And in His gracious, loving way He cares about us all.
And when we're faced with mysteries that can't be understood,
Through living faith, and faith alone, we know that God is good.*

*For every life there is a reason for the changing of the weather gives us our seasons
For every problem there is a solution, if we just trust and don't give up like most of us,
Our lives are planned right from the start from the twinkling of our eyes to the last beat of our heart.
As we travel down life's highway as straight as it may be sometimes we make that wrong turn that could determine our destiny
Love for today like there is no tomorrow, because if this is not done, your hearts could be left with sorrow.*

*Pat . . . Chance made us sisters, hearts made us friends
You have been and always will be in my heart.*

Love, Your Big Sister

Obituary

Ricky Camper – football coach, published author-poet, and avid gamer- died on Saturday, August 30, 2014 in Detroit, MI. He was days away from 32.

On October 16, 1982, Ricky was born in Detroit, MI, the first of three children born to Crystal Wright. As a child he was diagnosed with Spinal Muscular Atrophy, a type of Muscular Dystrophy. This disease causes weakness and developmental issues in the muscles of the body, most predominately in the arms and legs. His battle with this disease was impressive and purposeful; far outlasting the life expectancy of his treating doctors. If you knew him well, then you know his defiance of his doctor's expectancy was probably out of spite as he didn't like to be told what to do. In spite of his condition, he went on to live life, experiencing more than most.

A product of the Detroit Public School system, he graduated from Henry Ford High School in 2000 as a proud Trojan.

Among other interests, Ricky had a passion for football. As a child, he would watch and dissect the game of football from the sidelines. The fall was his Graceland. Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays is where he found the most peace. Bret Farve was his player. The Green Bay Packers were his team. His loyalty wouldn't allow him to switch teams even after Bret Farve retired, came out of retirement, retired again, and played and retired for the third time. In the latter part of the winter, in the summer and spring, when football season was long over, he would escape for hours into video games to get a taste of football.

After attending Henry Ford Community College, Ricky dove into his passion, as a football coach. Ricky has coached football for the Detroit Dragons with the Police Athletic League. Also, as a certified coach for the Detroit Public School League, he also coached his Alma Mater, the Henry Ford Trojans alongside his mentor Coach Mike Marshall.

Ricky had a way with words. This led him into another passion. He took to music and poetry early in his adult years as a form of expression. On June 31, 2012, Ricky teamed with a publisher to publish a book of his poetry titled "Encaged in Flesh" under the penname Arkham Azkaban.

He loved attending concerts, competing in gaming tournaments, and being surrounded by loved ones most of all. Ricky will be remembered for his quick witted humor and his sense of fashion, as well as his habit of assaulting people with his motorized wheelchair.

I would have let my mom be honored first

 Ricky was preceded in death by his uncle Marcus Smith. Sr., his great grandmother Herdacine Wright, and two close friends LaRon Daniels and Gary "Ben" Green. Helen Camper

Ricky leaves behind cherished memories, his mother Crystal Dowe (Kevin), father George McDay, brother Chris Camper Sr., sister Amber Willingham, grandmother Jo Cheryl Pinkston, grandfather Sandrew Smith, two close aunts Valeria Greer and Dorisene Camper, one close uncle Taiwan Smith, one niece Riley Camper, one nephew Chris Camper, Jr., ten close cousins Corey Greer, DaiChanai Jones, AuiChanai Conley, Marcus Smith, Jr., Delano Bibb, Jon Bibb, D'Metri Banks, Brandon Banks, Jesse Brown and Angelo Singletary, a loving daughter whom he treated as his own, Mi'Onlee, and a host of other brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
