Comerica Bank & Trust,
Heirs of the Estate of Prince
Rogers Nelson and their counsel

RE: Concerns about storage of Estate assets

Dear sirs and madams:

Having received responsive correspondence from counsel for Comerica Bank & Trust, the Court does not believe that any further response is necessary. The Petition for Emergency Relief is hereby denied.

The Court is well aware filings in this proceeding are quickly picked up by the press. In this case, it would appear to be a non-story. Further, the cost of the administration of the Estate will be reduced by the parties simply talking about issues before they are raised in pleadings, correspondence or court hearings. The Court strongly condemns bringing this matter before the Court without adequate discussion between the parties and will sanction a party for doing so in the future.
