

DEFENDANT'S SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION 1

Authorized Use of Force

Reasonable force may be used upon or toward the person of another without the other's consent when the following circumstances exist or the actor reasonably believes them to exist:

(1) when used by a public officer or one assisting a public officer under the public officer's direction:

- (i) in effectuating a lawful arrest; or
- (ii) in the execution of legal process; or
- (iii) in enforcement an order of the court; or
- (iv) in executing any other duty imposed upon the public officer by law.

Minn. Stat. 609.06

To prove guilt, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the Defendant's perceived use of force was not authorized by law.
