ORDER PROMULGATING AMENDMENTS TO
THE GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE FOR THE DISTRICT COURTS

The Minnesota Supreme Court Advisory Committee on the General Rules of Practice for the District Courts has recommended amendments to the General Rules of Practice to accommodate the transition by the judicial branch to a more universal electronic environment. Specifically, the committee recommends amendments to: (a) incorporate terms commonly used in an electronic filing and service environment, and add language to ease the use of electronic documents; (b) clarify the requirements for excluding restricted identifiers in documents filed with the courts; (c) permit the use of sworn statements signed under penalty of perjury; (d) update terminology in the rules; and (e) implement recommendations for amendment of the Probate Rules.

In an order filed January 2, 2015, the court provided a public comment period on the proposed amendments to the General Rules of Practice for the District Courts. The court also scheduled a public hearing on March 17, 2015 to consider issues related to public access to judicial-branch case records that might be presented by the amendments recommended to these rules. Two written comments were received. The first, from the Minnesota State Bar Association, primarily expressed concern with proposed amendments to Rule 11 of the General Rules of Practice for the District Courts. The second, from several judges in the Second Judicial District, raised concerns with proposed amendments to permit the use of sworn statements under penalty of perjury rather than notarized affidavits.

The court has carefully considered the committee's recommendations and the written comments. Based on all of the files, records, and proceedings herein,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

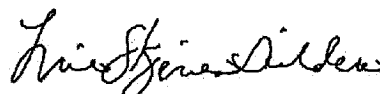

1. The attached amendments to the General Rules of Practice for the District Courts be, and the same are, prescribed and promulgated to be effective as of July 1, 2015. The rules as amended shall apply to all cases pending on, or filed on or after, the effective date.

2. The inclusion of committee comments is for convenience and does not reflect court approval of the comments.

3. The Advisory Committee for the General Rules of Practice for the District Courts shall continue to serve and monitor the rules and these amendments during the implementation and expansion of electronic filing and electronic service in the district courts, and shall report to the court by April 1, 2016, regarding any further amendments to the rules recommended by the committee.

ADM09-8009

MEMORANDUM

PER CURIAM.

In July 2014, we directed the Advisory Committee on the General Rules of Practice for the District Courts to consider whether amendments to the rules were needed to accommodate the transition by the judicial branch to a more universal electronic environment. On December 23, 2014, after several meetings, the committee filed a report and recommendations for amendments to a number of rules. These recommended amendments: (a) substitute terms commonly used in an electronic environment, such as deleting “paper” in favor of “document”; (b) clarify and reinforce rules that prohibit parties from filing certain documents, including documents that include restricted identifiers; (c) implement statutory authority for sworn statements under penalty of perjury; (d) update terminology used in the rules that bans discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation; and (e) update the probate rules.

The court provided a 60-day public comment period. The Minnesota State Bar Association and a group of Second District Judges submitted written comments regarding several proposed amendments.¹

First, the committee recommended a new provision for Minn. Gen. R. Prac. 11.04, to establish a procedure for segregating, and then correcting, documents containing restricted identifiers that are filed without the appropriate designation or redaction. A similar procedure was proposed by the Advisory Committee for the Rules of Civil Procedure. See ADM04-8001, Final Report at pp. 9-10 (filed Dec. 23, 2014). That committee proposed, and we agree, that these measures are best promulgated in the General Rules of Practice for the District Courts for application to all case types. We therefore approve the proposed amendment to Minn. Gen. R. Prac. 11.04.

Second, the MSBA raised several concerns about the proposed amendments to Rule 11 and the potential impact on filers, especially self-represented litigants. Based on its concerns, the MSBA proposed a broader definition of “financial source documents” to encompass applications to proceed in forma pauperis; additional language that would restrict the circumstances in which sanctions could be imposed for inadvertently filing documents with restricted identifiers; and steps that could be taken, outside the rules, to provide appropriate information, training, and warnings regarding the prohibitions on filing documents that contain restricted identifiers and financial source information.

¹ The Minnesota Coalition of County Law Libraries submitted written comments that endorsed the measured transition to electronic filing and service through initially permissive, and later mandatory, phases. We acknowledge with appreciation the training and education the Coalition intends to undertake, especially for self-represented litigants. And we direct State Court Administration to consider, as it continues to implement electronic filing and service statewide, the Coalition’s suggestions regarding tools to assist the infrequent e-filer.

The MSBA's concerns are well-founded. Parties will avoid running afoul of the rules and facing the possibility of sanctions only if they proceed with focused attention on the requirements of the rules and a diligent commitment to following the rules. The risk of sanctions, however, does not convince us that the rules require additional warnings or restrictions because many of the MSBA's concerns are already reflected in the rules or available practices. For example, in forma pauperis applications are already deemed non-confidential case records requested by the court, see Minn. R. Pub. Access 4, subd. 1(b), and therefore are not publicly accessible. In addition, Minn. Gen. R. Prac. 11.04, as amended, will provide parties the opportunity to cure an improper filing before sanctions are imposed. Finally, we agree that adequate information and training on these amended rules, especially for infrequent filers or self-represented litigants, will be important. We therefore direct State Court Administration to consider the MSBA's suggestions as it continues to implement electronic filing and service statewide and as it provides notice regarding these rule changes.

Third, a group of Second Judicial District Judges expressed concerns regarding proposed amendments to relax rule requirements for sworn, notarized affidavits, and permit the use of statements sworn under penalty of perjury instead. This change in practice is captured generally in proposed new Rule 15, although language permitting the use of sworn statements submitted under penalty of perjury also is found in proposed amendments to rules throughout the General Rules of Practice for the District Courts, as well as in other court rules. These comments expressed concern about the loss of “external verification” and in turn, the lost element of fraud protection provided by the notary process.

Minnesota Statutes § 358.116 (2014), enacted by the 2014 Legislature, see Act of May 6, 2014, ch. 204, § 3, 2014 Minn. Laws 485, 486, states that “notarized” documents filed with the judicial branch are “not required” unless a court rule provides otherwise. Instead, the act of signing a document is “verification upon oath or affirmation,” provided the signer includes a declaration under penalty of perjury that everything “stated in th[e] document is true and correct.” Id.

The comments correctly acknowledge that notarization adds an element of solemnity to the signing process that can serve as a deterrent against fraud. We recognize that district court judges maybe the first to determine the validity of a signed, sworn statement, notarized or otherwise. But we are unconvinced that notarization, by itself, eases that determination. In fact, some of the examples of fraudulent signing activity relied on in these comments were based on notarized affidavits. Nor do we conclude that the criminal penalty that accompanies perjury is insufficient to deter fraud or to convey the solemnity of the signing. Statements sworn under penalty of perjury have been permitted for years in federal courts, see 28 U.S.C. § 1746 (2012), without an apparent loss of solemnity or an increase in fraudulent statements. Finally, the committee’s proposed language for Rule 15 allows the court to require notarized signatures, see Minn. Gen. R. Prac. 15, and we are confident that a court will exercise that authority should circumstances demonstrate that a greater measure of solemnity or verification than that provided by notarization is warranted. In the majority of instances of signed documents, however, we believe that the improved access to the courts advanced by the use of sworn statements submitted under penalty of perjury outweighs the concerns advanced by the commenters. We therefore adopt the committee's recommended amendments to the General Rules of Practice to permit the use of sworn statements submitted under penalty of perjury.

We appreciate the thorough and thoughtful work of the committee in completing this work in the time frame established to allow implementation of e-filing and e-service as recommended by the eCourtMN Steering Committee.

AMENDMENTS TO THE GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE

[Note: In the following amendments, deletions are indicated by a line drawn through the words and additions are indicated by a line drawn under the words.]

RULE 1. SCOPE OF RULES; MODIFICATION; SERVICE ON PARTIES; APPLICABILITY TO ~~PRO SE PARTIES~~SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS

Rule 1.03 Service on Parties

When a ~~paper~~document is to be served on a party under these rules, service shall be made on the party's lawyer if represented, otherwise on the ~~nonparty~~self-represented litigant directly.

Rule 1.04 Responsibility of ~~Parties Appearing Pro Se~~Self-Represented Litigants

Whenever these rules require that an act be done by a lawyer, the same duty is required of a ~~party appearing pro se~~self-represented litigant.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendments to Rules 1.03 and 1.04 are not substantive in nature or intended effect. The replacement of “paper” with “document” is made throughout these rules, and simply advances precision in choice of language. Most documents will not be filed as “paper” documents, so paper is retired as a descriptor of them. “Self-represented litigant” is defined in Rule 14.01(a)(12). This term is being used uniformly throughout the judicial branch, and is preferable to “non-represented party” and “pro se party,” both to avoid a Latin phrase not used outside legal jargon and to facilitate the drafting of clearer rules.

Rule 2.01 Behavior and Ceremony in General

(a) Acceptable Behavior. Dignity and solemnity shall be maintained in the courtroom. There shall be no unnecessary conversation, loud whispering, newspaper or magazine reading or other distracting activity in the courtroom while court is in session. The court or presiding judicial officer has discretion to limit or prohibit the use of electronic devices in the courtroom. The court or presiding officer's discretion is limited by Rule 4 of these Rules as it pertains to electronic devices used to photograph or record the proceedings. Permitted electronic devices must in all instances be set to silent mode, and must be used in an unobtrusive manner.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendments to Rule 2.01 bring the rule up to date with respect to modern distractions. The use of hand-held devices (such as mobile phones, smart phones, and laptop computers), or myriad other devices that are now ubiquitous can be just as distracting or disruptive as newspaper reading or loud conversation. The rule permits the presiding judge to place appropriate restrictions on the use of these devices. The rule incorporates the limitations of Rule 4 of these rules on the use of devices for audio- or video-recording of court proceedings.

Rule 2.02. Role Of Judges

(a) Dignity. The judge shall be dignified, courteous, respectful and considerate of the lawyers, the jury and witnesses. The judge shall wear a robe at all trials and courtroom appearances. The judge shall at all times treat all lawyers, jury members, and witnesses fairly and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, sexual ~~preferenee~~orientation, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

Rule 2.02(a) is amended to refer to “sexual orientation” rather than “sexual preference.” This change is consistent with terms used in legislative definitions of prohibited discriminatory conduct. See, e.g. Minn. Stat. §§ 363A.02 (Minnesota Human Rights Act); § 82B.195, subd. 3 (vii) (real estate appraisers).

Rule 2.03. Role Of Attorneys

(d) Non-Discrimination. Lawyers shall treat all parties, participants, other lawyers, and court personnel fairly and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, sexual ~~preference~~orientation, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

Rule 2.03(d) is amended to refer to “sexual orientation” rather than “sexual preference.” This change is consistent with terms used in legislative definitions of prohibited discriminatory conduct. See, e.g., Minn. Stat. § 363A.02 (Minnesota Human Rights Act); §§ 82B.195, subd. 3 (vii) (real estate appraisers).

RULE 5. APPEARANCE BY OUT-OF-STATE LAWYERS

Lawyers duly admitted to practice in the trial courts of any other jurisdiction may appear in any of the courts of this state provided (a) the pleadings are also signed by a lawyer duly admitted to practice in the State of Minnesota, and (b) such lawyer admitted in Minnesota is also present before the court, in chambers or in the courtroom or participates by telephone in any hearing conducted by telephone. In a subsequent appearance in the same action the out-of-state lawyer may, in the discretion of the court, conduct the proceedings without the presence of Minnesota counsel. The out-of-state lawyer is subject to all rules that apply to lawyers admitted in Minnesota, including rules related to e-filing.

Any lawyer appearing pursuant to this rule ~~shall be~~ is subject to the disciplinary rules and regulations governing Minnesota lawyers and by applying to appear or appearing in any action ~~shall be~~ is subject to the jurisdiction of the Minnesota courts.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendments to Rule 5 are not substantive in nature or intended effect. They make explicit what the courts have recognized as within their inherent power to regulate the practice of law before the courts. The court’s jurisdiction over the person of lawyers applying to appear or appearing in the Minnesota courts is not open to serious question, at least as to disciplinary matters relating to that application or appearance. This rule makes clear the court’s jurisdiction over a pro hac vice applicant, and similarly makes it clear that e-filing of documents with the Minnesota courts would have this consequence. The application for a subpoena in an action pending outside Minnesota does not create an appearance under R. Civ. P. 45 as proposed by the civil rules advisory committee, but nonetheless subjects the applicant to the court’s jurisdiction and disciplinary authority. The subpoena and procedures to enforce it are subject to Minnesota procedural rules and rules governing the conduct of lawyers.

RULE 6. FORM OF PLEADINGS THAT ARE NOT FILED ELECTRONICALLY

Rule 6.01 Format

All pleadings or other documents ~~required to be filed~~ that are not filed electronically shall be double spaced and legibly handwritten, typewritten, or printed on one side on plain, unglazed paper of good texture. Every page shall have a top margin of not less than one inch, free from all typewritten, printed, or other written matter. ~~Any pleading or document either permitted or required to be served or filed electronically must conform to the format requirements contained in the court rules or orders relating to electronic filing.~~ Under Rule 14 of these rules, all pleadings or documents filed electronically must comply with the format requirements established by the state court administrator in the Minnesota District Court Registered User Guide for Electronic Filing.

Rule 6.02 Paper Size

All papers served or filed by any party that are not served or filed electronically shall be on standard size 8-1/2 x 11 inch paper.

Rule 6.03 Backings Not Allowed

No pleading, motion, order, or other paper ~~offered~~ submitted to the court administrator for non-electronic filing shall be backed or otherwise enclosed in a covering. Any papers that cannot be attached by a single staple in the upper lefthand corner shall be clipped or tied by an alternate means at the upper lefthand corner.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendments to Rule 6 recognize that upon the adoption of mandatory e-filing for some courts and some types of cases, other documents will be filed in paper form. The rule does not change the requirements for paper documents.

Rule 6.01 also provides a cross-reference to the Minnesota District Court Registered User Guide for Electronic Filing, which will contain the format requirements for electronic documents that are e-filed or e-served. See Minn. Gen. R. Prac. 14. That guidance document will be regularly updated and maintained on the judicial branch website, www.mncourts.gov, which will allow it to be kept current as technical requirements evolve without repeated amendatory Supreme Court orders.

RULE 7. PROOF OF SERVICE

~~When service has been made before filing, proofs of service shall be affixed to all documents so that the identity of the instrument is not obscured. If a document is filed before service, proof of service shall be filed within 10 days after service is made. When~~

~~service is made electronically when authorized by and in accordance with Rule 14 of these rules, the record of service on the e-service system shall constitute proof of service.~~

When a document has been conventionally served before filing, proof of service shall be affixed to the document so that the identity of the document is not obscured. If a document is filed before conventional service has been made, proof of service shall be filed within 10 days after service is made. When a document has been served through the E-Filing System in accordance with Rule 14, the record of service on the E-Filing System shall constitute proof of service.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

Rule 7 is amended to provide for proof of service for all methods of service allowed under the rules. E-service is proved by the record maintained by and available from the court's e-filing and e-service system, obviating any additional filings to prove service. All other means of service are defined as "conventional service" by Rule 14.01, which is proved by a written affidavit, certificate, or acknowledgement of service filed shortly after service is made.

RULE 9. FRIVOLOUS LITIGATION

Rule 9.06 Definitions

As used in this rule, the following terms have the following meanings:

(b) "Frivolous litigant" means:

(2) A person who in any action or proceeding repeatedly serves or files frivolous motions, pleadings, letters, or other ~~papers~~documents, conducts unnecessary discovery, or engages in oral or written tactics that are frivolous or intended to cause delay; * * *.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendment to Rule 9 is not substantive in nature or intended effect. The replacement of "paper" with "document" is made throughout these rules to advance precision in choice of language. Most documents will not be filed as "paper" documents, so paper is retired as a descriptor of them.

RULE 11. SUBMISSION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Rule 11.02 Restricted Identifiers

(a) Pleadings and Other Documents Submitted by a Party. No party shall submit restricted identifiers on any pleading or other document that is to be filed with the court except when the information is germane and necessary for the court's consideration of the issues then before the court. If it is necessary to provide restricted identifiers to the court, they must be submitted in either of the following two ways:

- (1) on a separate form entitled Confidential Information Form (see Form 11.1 as published by the state court administrator) filed with the pleading or other document; or
- (2) on Confidential Financial Source Documents under Rule 11.03.

The Confidential Information Form (Form 11.1) shall not be accessible to the public.

The parties are solely responsible for ensuring that restricted identifiers do not otherwise appear on the pleading or other document filed with the court. The court administrator will not review each pleading or document filed by a party for compliance with this rule. ~~The Confidential Information Form (Form 11.1) shall not be accessible to the public.~~ Notwithstanding this provision, the court administrator may take any action consistent with Rule 11.04.

(c) Certification. Every filing shall constitute a certification by the filer that the documents filed contain no restricted identifiers, except as permitted in section (a) of this rule. For documents filed using the E-Filing System, this certification may additionally be provided by electronically acknowledging the certification statement in the manner designated by the E-Filing System.

Rule 11.03 Confidential Financial Source Documents

(a) Cover Sheet Required. Financial source documents shall be submitted to the court under a cover sheet designated "Confidential Financial Source Documents" and substantially in the form set forth as Form 11.2 as published by the state court administrator. Financial source documents submitted with the required cover sheet are not accessible to the public except to the extent that they are admitted into evidence in a testimonial hearing or trial or as provided in Rule 11.05 of these rules. The cover sheet or copy of it shall be accessible to the public.

(b) Closed Account Statements. Statements from a permanently closed (also known as "charged off") credit card or financial institution account that has been identified as a closed account in the related pleading or other filed document need not be submitted as a Confidential Financial Source Document under Rule 11.03 of these rules unless desired by the filing party or as directed by the court.

(c) Absence of Cover Sheet. Financial source documents that are not submitted with the required cover sheet are accessible to the public, but the court may, upon motion or on its own initiative, order that any such financial source document be confidential.

Rule 11.04 Failure to Comply

If a party fails to comply with the requirements of this rule in regard to ~~another individual's~~ any person's restricted identifiers or financial source documents, the court may upon motion or its own initiative impose appropriate sanctions, including costs necessary to prepare an appropriate document for filing:

Upon discovery that a document containing restricted identifiers has not been submitted in a confidential manner as required by this rule, the court administrator shall file it with a temporary non-public status pending redaction or court order and direct the filer to, within 21 days, either:

- (1) serve and file a properly redacted filing and pay any prescribed monetary fee to the court, and, if the party desires that the filing date of the resubmitted document(s) relates back to the filing date of the original document(s), serve and file a motion requesting the relation-back to the original filing date; or
- (2) file a motion for relief from the court.

Any other party may oppose the motion seeking relation-back to the original filing date within the same time limits as are provided by law for the type of document(s) being filed. If a filer timely pays the monetary fee, and timely requests relation-back of the filing date, the court may order that the filing date of the properly submitted document(s) relate back to the filing date of the original document(s).

If no action is taken within 21 days after notice, the filing shall be stricken.

Rule 11.05 Procedure for Requesting Access to Confidential Financial Source Documents

(a) Motion. Any person may file a motion, supported by affidavit showing good cause, for access to Confidential Financial Source Documents or portions of the documents. Written notice of the motion ~~shall be to all parties~~ is required.

Rule 11.06 When Documents May Be Filed as Confidential or Under Seal

A party may submit a document for filing as a “confidential document” or “~~under sealed document~~” only if one of these circumstances ~~exist~~ exists:

(a) The court has entered an order permitting the filing of the particular document or class of documents under seal or as confidential.

(b) This rule or any applicable court rule, court order, or statute expressly authorizes or requires filing under seal or as confidential.

(c) The party files a motion for leave to file under seal or as confidential not later than at the time of submission of the document.

The court may require a filing party to specify the authority for asserting that a filing ~~may be made as~~ a “confidential document” or “under-sealed document.” For purposes of this rule, the terms “confidential document” and “sealed document” shall have the meanings set forth in Rule 14.01. Additional requirements for electronically submitting a document as confidential or sealed in the E-Filing System are set forth in Rule 14.06.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendments to Rule 11 are intended to advance the important interests in preventing the filing of confidential and sensitive information in publicly accessible court files. The amendment to Rule 11.02(a) reminds filers that the best way to prevent public access to sensitive personal information is not to file it with the court unless needed. If a social security number, financial institution record, home address, and any other information defined to be a restricted identifier under the rule is not required for the adjudication of a matter before the court, simply omitting it from the filing prevents any further risk of disclosure. If the information is necessary, then using the other procedures of Rule 11.02 is necessary. The consequences of failing to comply with the rule include sanctions against the filer, and if failure to follow the rule causes injury to any person, an action for damages may lie.

There are very few statutes that require the filing of restricted identifiers. They may be required in certain family child support cases, see Minn. Stat. §§ 256.87, subd. 1a; 257.66, subd. 3; 518.10; 518A.56; and 42 U.S.C. § 666(a)(13), which currently require the court to identify the parties by social security number. Minn. Stat. § 548.101 requires the disclosure of the last four digits of a debtor’s social security number, if known, in cases involving assigned consumer debt. Social security numbers were required for filings to commence informal probate or appointment proceedings until 2006. See 2006 Minn. Laws, ch. 221, § 20, amending Minn. Stat. § 524.3-301.

Rule 11.02(c) is new and provides that filing constitutes certification that the document does not contain unauthorized restricted identifiers. For documents filed electronically, this certification may additionally be made explicitly by checking the appropriate box on a screen that will be incorporated into the e-filing process. See also Rule 14.06. As is true for other rules, failure to follow the rule, or the making of a false certification, may warrant the imposition of sanctions as may be authorized by other rules or under the court's inherent power.

Rule 11.06 is intended to provide important guidance on when documents may be filed as confidential or under seal. The rule permits these filings in only three circumstances. As part of the implementation of this rule, filers should expect that the E-Filing System of the court will ask the filer to specify which basis for filing as confidential or under seal is being relied upon for that filing. If an order in the case, statute, or court rule does not expressly permit or require filing of the document under seal or as confidential, a motion must be brought to request approval of filing that document under seal or as confidential not later than the time of filing.

Rule 11.06 specifies the procedure used by a filer for filing under seal or as confidential. Additionally, the court can at any time treat a document containing restricted identifiers as confidential until the parties or court can ensure the document properly conforms to the requirements of Rule 11.

RULE 12. REQUIREMENT FOR COMPARABLE MEANS OF SERVICE

~~In all cases, Except where e-filing and e-service is required by court order or rule, the parties may file and serve by any available method, but a party serving a paper document on a party and filing the same paper with the court must select comparable means of service and filing so that the papers documents are delivered substantially contemporaneously. This rule does not apply to service of a summons or a subpoena. Pleadings and other papers documents need not be filed until required by Minn. R. Civ. P. 5.05 and motions for sanctions may not be filed before the time allowed by Minn. R. Civ. P. 11.03(a).~~

In emergency situations, where compliance with this rule is not possible, the facts of attempted compliance must be provided by affidavit.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendment to Rule 12 is intended to retain the existing rule requiring that parties serve and file documents by comparable means, but adapts it to specify that if e-filing or e-service are required, then those methods must be used. This rule is intended to eliminate strategic maneuvering with service, and attorneys and self-represented litigants should expect that this rule will be interpreted to penalize attempts to gain some perceived advantage over other parties by serving and filing by different means.

A self-represented litigant who elects not to use the E-Filing System may expect that an opposing attorney may e-file a document with the court and serve it by U.S. mail on the self-represented litigant on the same day. In this circumstance, the filing will precede the service, which is permitted under the rule as the attorney is required to use the E-Filing System to file the document.

RULE 14. E-FILING AND E-SERVICE

Rule 14.01 Mandatory and Voluntary E-File and E-Service

(a) Definitions. For purposes of the General Rules of Practice, unless otherwise indicated, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) “Confidential document” (which may include “Confidential 1” and “Confidential 2,” etc., as available and defined by the E-Filing System document security classifications) means a document that will not be accessible to the public, but will be accessible to court staff and, where applicable, to certain governmental entities as authorized by law, court rule, or court order.

(2) “Conventionally” means, with respect to the filing or serving of documents or other materials, the filing or serving of documents or other materials through any means other than through the E-Filing System in accordance with Rule 14.

(3) “Court Integration Services” means computer systems that allow direct computer-system-to-computer-system integrations to facilitate the electronic exchange of documents and data between the court’s electronic case management system and a government agency’s electronic information system. Government agencies may register for Court Integration Services under the process established by the state court administrator.

~~(1)~~(4) “Designated Provider” means the electronic filing service provider designated by the state court administrator.

(b) Scope and Effective Date of Mandatory and Voluntary E-File and E-Service.

~~(b)(1) Cases Subject to Mandatory E-Filing and E-Service. Effective September 1, 2012, attorneys representing parties in any case of the Pilot Project Case Types in the Second and Fourth Judicial Districts, and effective September 1, 2013, or ninety (90) days after designation by the State Court Administrator, whichever is later, for attorneys representing parties in any case of the Pilot Project Case types in the districts or portions thereof designated by the State Court Administrator under Rule 14.01(e), and government agencies appearing in such cases, must register promptly upon filing of any document by any party with the Designated Provider and file documents electronically with the court in Pilot Project Case Types. Registered attorneys and government agencies must also electronically serve all documents required or permitted to be served on other registered attorneys and government agencies in that case, provided that the~~

~~attorney to be served has designated an e-mail address for receiving electronic service in the E-Filing System after the District Court has accepted the initial filing in the case. Electronic filing and electronic service shall be accomplished through the E-Filing System.~~

Effective July 1, 2015, unless otherwise required or authorized by these rules, other rules of court, or an order of the court, Select Users in any case in the Second Judicial District, Fourth Judicial District, and in the districts or portions thereof designated by the state court administrator, shall file all documents electronically with the court through the E-Filing System and shall serve documents electronically through the E-Filing System as required under Rule 14.03(d) of these rules.

Effective July 1, 2016, unless otherwise required or authorized by these rules, other rules of court, or an order of the court, Select Users in any case throughout the State of Minnesota shall file all documents electronically with the court through the E-Filing System and shall serve documents electronically through the E-Filing System as required under Rule 14.03(d) of these rules.

~~(e)(2) Prohibited E-Filing. The following case types documents may not be filed electronically: in proceedings related to:~~

~~(1)(i) Wills deposited for safekeeping under Minnesota Statutes, section 524.2-515; and~~

~~(2)(ii) All documents in parental Parental-notification bypass proceedings under Minnesota Statutes, section 144.343.~~

~~(d)(3) Request for Exception to Mandatory E-File and E-Service Requirement. An attorney or government agency Select User required to file and serve electronically under this rule, may request to be excused from mandatory e-filing and e-service in a particular case by motion to the Chief Judge of the judicial district or his or her designee. An opt-out request may be granted for good cause shown. If an opt-out request is granted, the court court personnel shall scan all documents filed conventionally filings into the court's computer system and may charge the filing party an appropriate fee.~~

~~(e)(4) Voluntary E-File and E-Serve. During the pilot project, attorneys, and parties designated by the Fourth Judicial District and Second Judicial District may, upon registering with the Designated Provider, electronically file documents with the court in civil cases designated by the respective judicial district. For other districts, Effective July 1, 2015, and ending July 1, 2016, Select Users attorneys and parties designated by the State Court Administrator state court administrator may, upon registering with the Designated Provider, electronically file documents with the court in the locations and civil cases designated by the state court administrator. In any designated case in which the designated and registered~~

~~Select User has attorneys or parties have electronically filed a document with the District Court district court, any other Select User attorney or law firm representing a party in the case and any party designated by the District Court (Second and Fourth Judicial Districts), or the state court administrator (all other districts), may also electronically file documents in the case after registering with the Designated Provider. Registered Select Users attorneys and parties shall~~may also electronically serve documents on other registered ~~Select Users attorneys and parties~~ in such cases ~~as required under Rule 14.03(d) of these rules provided that the attorney or party to be served has designated an e-mail address for receiving electronic service in the E-Filing System after the District Court has accepted the initial filing in the case.~~

(i) Election to Use E-Filing System. Unless otherwise required or authorized by these rules, other rules of court, or an order of the court, in any county where electronic filing and service is authorized, a self-represented litigant may elect to use the E-Filing System to electronically file and serve. But unless otherwise ordered by the presiding judge or judicial officer, a self-represented litigant is not required to do so. Once a self-represented litigant has elected or has been ordered to use the E-Filing System for filing and service and has become a Registered User, that individual must thereafter electronically file and serve all documents in that case unless otherwise required or authorized by these rules or the court, and shall be subject to all applicable requirements and obligations imposed upon Registered Users as set forth in these rules.

(ii) Excuse and Prohibition. A self-represented litigant who has elected to use the E-Filing System may be excused from the requirement to electronically file and serve only upon motion to the court and for good cause shown. If the court becomes aware of any misuse of the E-Filing System by a self-represented litigant or deems it appropriate in the exercise of discretion, considering the need for the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action, the court may, without prior notice, revoke the self-represented litigant's right to use the E-Filing System in the case and require the individual to file and serve all documents conventionally. Self-represented litigants are excused from using the E-Filing System while under any court-imposed restriction of access to use of the internet.

(iii) Case Initiating Documents. Statutes or court rules may require that certain case-initiating documents be served by conventional means. See, e.g., Rule 5.02(b) of the rules of civil procedure (original complaint in civil cases).

(iv) Other Electronic Filing and Service Options. When authorized by order of the Supreme Court, self-represented litigants may use an alternative electronic filing system designated in such order. See, e.g., Order Authorizing E-Filing/E-Service Pilot Project for Self-Represented Petitioners, No. ADM10-8011, (Minn. filed June 24, 2013) (applicable to orders for protection and harassment restraining order proceedings in counties designated by the state court administrator; commonly referred to as the MyCourtMN portal).

(6) Non-Party Participants.

(i) Election to Use E-Filing System. In any county where electronic filing and service is authorized, individuals who are not Select Users or self-represented litigants (e.g., special masters, bondspersons, examiners, potential intervenors, etc.) but who need to submit documents to the court for filing may elect to use the E-Filing System and become a Registered User but unless otherwise ordered by the presiding judge or judicial officer shall not be required to do so. Any individual or entity authorized to use the E-Filing System pursuant to this paragraph, who becomes a Registered User and transmits documents for filing or service through the E-Filing System shall be subject to all applicable requirements and obligations imposed upon Registered Users as set forth in these rules, and that individual must thereafter electronically file and serve all documents in that case unless otherwise required or authorized by these rules or the court.

(ii) Misuse. If the court becomes aware of any misuse of the E-Filing System by a non-party participant or deems it appropriate in the exercise of discretion, considering the need for the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action, the court may, without prior notice, revoke the non-party participant's right to use the E-Filing System in the case and require the individual to file and serve all documents conventionally.

(7) Court Integration Services. Government agencies, as authorized by the state court administrator, shall be allowed to electronically file documents, electronically transmit data to the court, and electronically receive documents and data from the court, via Court Integration Services.

(8) Conservators. Conservators appointed by the court must electronically file their annual accounts and inventories using a computer application designated by the state court administrator. Directions for reporting shall be posted on the judicial branch website (www.mncourts.gov).

(f)(c) Relief from Operation of this Rule.

(1) Technical Errors; Relief for Sending Party. Upon motion and a showing that electronic filing or electronic service of a document was not completed because of: (1) an error in the transmission of the document to the E-Filing System ~~that was unknown to the sending party~~; (2) a failure of the E-Filing System to process the document when received; or (3) other technical problems experienced by the sending party or E-Filing System, the court may enter an order permitting the document to be deemed filed or served on the date and time it was first attempted to be transmitted electronically. If appropriate, the court may adjust the schedule for responding to these documents or the court's hearing.

(2) Technical Errors; Relief for Other Parties. Upon motion and a showing that an electronically served document was unavailable to or not received by a party served, the court may enter an order extending the time for responding to that document.

Rule 14.02 Registration Process and Duty to Designate E-Mail Address for Service

~~An attorney or party registers with the Designated Provider for each case by entering into a subscriber agreement with the Designated Provider and obtaining an E-Filing System user identification and password provided by the Designated Provider. The registered attorney or party must also designate in the E-Filing System an e-mail address for receiving electronic service in the case. Once an initial filing has been accepted in a case, all other registered attorneys and parties shall, upon filing their initial document in a case, designate in the E-Filing System an e-mail address for receiving electronic service in the case. Registered attorneys and parties shall maintain a designated e-mail address for receiving electronic service until all applicable appeal periods have expired for the case.~~

(a) Becoming a Registered User. Only a Registered User may electronically file or serve documents through the E-Filing System. To become a Registered User, a Select User, self-represented litigant, or non-party participant must complete the registration process, as established by the state court administrator, and designate an e-mail address ("designated e-mail address") for receipt of electronic service and court notices. By registering with the Designated Provider and electronically transmitting a document for filing in a case, a Registered User consents to receive electronic service and court notices from the court and other Registered Users in the case through the E-Filing System at a designated e-mail address. This designated e-mail address may also be used by the court (but not other parties) to deliver notices by means other than the E-Filing System.

(b) Obligations and Responsibilities of Registered Users.

(1) A Registered User is responsible for all documents filed or served under the Registered User's username and password.

(2) If a Registered User knows that his or her login information has been misappropriated, misused or compromised in any way, he or she must promptly notify the court and change his or her login password.

(3) Any electronic transmission, downloading, or viewing of an electronic document under a Registered User's login username and password shall be deemed to have been made with the authorization of that Registered User unless and until proven otherwise by a preponderance of the evidence.

(4) A Registered User shall maintain a designated e-mail address for receiving electronic service and court notices for the duration of any case in which he or she has electronically transmitted a document for filing as a party or participant and until all applicable appeal periods have expired. A Registered User shall ensure that his or her designated e-mail address and account is current, monitored regularly, has not exceeded its size limitation, and that all notices and document links transmitted to the designated e-mail account are timely opened and reviewed.

(5) A Registered User may not designate e-mail addresses for any other person or party who is not the Registered User's client, law firm staff, or co-counsel. The court may impose a sanction against any Registered User who violates this rule. It shall not be a violation for a Registered User when filing or serving documents using the E-Filing System to select service recipients who have been added to the service list for a case by another Registered User.

Rule 14.03 Document Format Filing and Service of Documents and Court Notices

(a) Availability of E-Filing System. Registered Users may electronically transmit documents for filing or service through the E-Filing System 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, except when the system is unavailable due to breakdown or scheduled maintenance.

(b) Filed Upon Transmittal. A document that is electronically filed is deemed to have been filed by the court administrator on the date and time of its transmittal to the court through the E-Filing System, and except for proposed orders, the filing shall be stamped with this date and time if it is subsequently accepted by the court administrator. If the filing is not subsequently accepted by the court administrator for reasons authorized in Rule 5.04 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, no date stamp shall be applied, and the E-Filing System shall notify the filer that the filing was not accepted. Upon receipt of a document electronically transmitted for filing by a Registered User, the E-Filing System shall confirm to the Registered User, through an automatically generated notification to the Registered User's designated e-mail address, that the transmission of the document was completed and the date and time of the document's receipt. Absent confirmation of receipt, there is no presumption that the document was successfully transmitted to the court. The Registered User is solely responsible for verifying that the court received all electronically transmitted documents.

(c) Effective Time of Filing. Any document electronically transmitted to the court through the E-Filing System for filing by 11:59 p.m. local Minnesota time shall be deemed filed on that date, so long as the document is not subsequently rejected for filing by the court administrator for a reason authorized by Rule 5.04 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. Filing by facsimile transmission, where authorized, is effective at the time the transmission is received by the court.

(d) Service by Registered Users. Unless personal service is otherwise required by statute, these rules, other rules of court, or an order of the court, a Registered User shall serve all documents required or permitted to be served upon another party or person in the following manner:

(1) Service on Registered Users. Except as otherwise permitted in subpart (3) below, where the party or person to be served is a Registered User, who has electronically filed a document in the case, service shall be accomplished through the E-Filing System by utilizing the electronic service function of the E-Filing System.

(2) Service on Other Parties or Participants. Where the party or participant to be served is not a Registered User or has not electronically filed a document in the case but has agreed to service by electronic means outside the E-Filing System (such as by e-mail), service may be made in the agreed upon manner. The presiding judge or judicial officer may also order that service on the non-Registered User be made by electronic means outside of the E-Filing System. Where service by electronic means is not required or permitted, another method of service authorized under applicable rules or law must be used.

(3) Service of Discovery Material. Unless required by court order, electronic service of discovery material through the E-Filing System shall be voluntary, and discovery material may be served in any manner authorized by the court rules, as agreed by the parties, or as ordered by the court. For purposes of this rule, discovery material includes but is not limited to:

(i) disclosures under Minn. R. Civ. P. 26, expert disclosures and reports, depositions and interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admission, answers and responses thereto, and any other material as designated by the presiding judge or judicial officer; and

(ii) discovery requests and responses as defined in any applicable court rules, and

(iii) any other material as designated by the presiding judge or judicial officer.

(e) Effective Date of Service. Service is complete upon completion of the electronic transmission of the document to the E-Filing System notwithstanding whether the document is subsequently rejected for filing by the court administrator. Service by facsimile transmission, where authorized, is complete upon the completion of the facsimile transmission.

(f) Court Notices. The court may transmit any document or notice to a Registered User through the E-Filing System. Notice is effective upon transmission of the document or notice to the E-Filing System by the court. The court may also transmit notices outside the E-Filing System as provided in Rule 14.02(a) or other applicable rules.

~~(a) (g) Document Types Requirements and Format. Documents filed electronically shall be submitted in searchable PDF format only. Unless otherwise authorized by these rules or court order, all documents filed electronically shall conform to the document technical and size requirements as established by the state court administrator in the Minnesota District Court Registered User Guide for Electronic Filing. The Guide shall be posted on the judicial branch website (www.mncourts.gov).~~

With leave of court, a color document or document containing color may be filed electronically with manual handling or in paper form to be retained by the court in a color format. A motion to file a color document or document containing color to be retained by the court in a color format must be filed and served electronically. Where it is not feasible for a Registered User to convert a document to an authorized electronic form by scanning, imaging, or other means, or where a document cannot reasonably be transmitted through the E-Filing System in conformance with the document's technical and size requirements as established by the state court administrator, the court may allow the Registered User to file the document conventionally. A motion to file a non-conforming document must be filed electronically. If the court grants the Registered User's motion to file a non-conforming document, the Registered User shall file and serve the non-conforming document conventionally.~~

Rule 14.04 Signatures

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendments to Rule 14 address several important aspects of the use of the court’s e-filing and e-service system. This rule is the workhorse rule for implementation of e-filing and e-service, and governs in all courts and types of cases where e-filing is either required or permitted.

It is worthwhile to understand the reason for “required or permitted” language in the rules. As a means to accomplish orderly and efficient transition to judicial branch-wide requirement for e-filing and e-service, the courts have generally begun with permissive use of e-filing and e-service for a subset of the court’s business. The courts have then gradually moved to mandatory use in these matters, by all attorney filers.

Several of the changes are not substantive in nature or intended effect. The replacement of “paper” with “document” is made throughout these rules, and simply advances precision in choice of language. Most documents will not be filed as “paper” documents, so paper is retired as a descriptor of them. “Self-represented litigant” is being used uniformly throughout the judicial branch, and is preferable to “non-represented party” and “pro se party,” both to avoid a Latin phrase not used outside legal jargon and to facilitate the drafting of clearer rules.

Rule 14.01(a) is amended to update the definitions, and includes terms previously defined in Rule 14.06. The term "Self-Represented Litigant" is defined and is used in preference to "pro se party" to use a term more readily understood. The rule also makes it clear that only non-lawyers are treated as "Self-Represented Litigants." A lawyer who is licensed to practice, is a party to a case, and is not otherwise represented is treated as a represented party.

Rule 14.01(b) is updated to establish the current status of electronic filing and electronic service, and to provide for the expanding requirements for use of the electronic means for these functions. The rule implements a clear mandate that represented parties and government agencies must serve and file using the court's system unless otherwise provided by rule or order. Government agencies here would include governmental parties to litigation and other agencies, such as a county sheriff's office, that are regularly involved in the litigation process.

Rule 14.03(d)(2) recognizes that any means of service may suffice under the rules if the party to be served has consented to its use. Thus, service by e-mail outside the court's system is acceptable and effective if the parties have consented to it. In the event a stipulation is made on this subject, however, the parties should specify when that service is effective, as the rules may not establish that date or time. Although there is virtually no limit on how service could be effected with consent of the party being served, in the absence of consent only the methods explicitly authorized by the rules are effective. Rule 14.03(d)(2) deals particularly with special categories of cases where there typically are non-party participants, such as non-party guardians ad litem, probation officers or other court services personnel, victim advocates, or similar interested persons.

The effective date for service is important for most documents. Rule 14.03(e) provides the default rule for most service events. In the event the E-Filing System is not available, Rule 14.01(c) may provide some relief to a party who might otherwise miss a deadline. Rule 14.03(f) recognizes that courts may wish to provide notices to the parties by e-mail without using the court's E-Filing System. This desire is driven by a lack of integration between the court's MNCIS case management system and the e-serve function in the court's E-Filing System. Where the notice is substantively important, such as in child support magistrate cases where the date and time of notice begins the appeal period, the courts should avoid giving formal notices outside the e-service system. Efforts should be made by the courts to remove any barriers to use of the E-Filing System by court personnel since that process will be understood by the parties and generates a record that may be of interest to the parties.

Rule 14.06 is amended to delete the definitions of how various confidential and sealed records will be accessible within the judiciary. These definitions are now set forth in Rule 14.01(a), along with other definitions.

Rule 14.07 as amended to make it clear that even when documents are filed in paper form, the court may scan and digitize their content, and retain only the electronic record of the filing. Ultimately, the duration of retention of that electronic record will be governed by the court's record retention schedule. See District Court Record Retention Schedule 2014, published on the main Minnesota Courts website, www.mncourts.gov under “Justice Partner Resources.”

RULE 15. AFFIDAVITS

Unless otherwise specified in any court rule, the term “affidavit” means:

(a) a document that has been signed, sworn, and notarized; and

(b) a document that has been signed under penalty of perjury pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 358.116, provided that the signature is affixed immediately below a declaration using substantially the following language: “I declare under penalty of perjury that everything I have stated in this document is true and correct.” In addition to the signature, the date of signing and the county and state where the document was signed shall be noted on the document.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

Rule 15 is a new rule, included to the address issues relating to the adoption of Minn. Stat. § 358.116 (2014)(codifying 2014 Minn. Laws ch. 204, § 3). The statute allows the courts to require specifically, by rule, that notarization is necessary for particular situations. This rule is intended to improve public access to the courts by removing what may be an unnecessarily difficult obstacle—obtaining a notarization of a signature.

Subdivision (a) of the rule applies to any document that is “signed, sworn, and notarized.” This category includes documents signed and sworn to before ex officio notaries, such as deputy court administrators. See Minn. Stat. § 358.15. It would also apply to affidavits signed outside Minnesota to the extent authorized by statute. See Minn. Stat. §§ 358.46–.48.

RULE 16. PAGINATION OF COURT FILINGS AND EXHIBITS

Each document filed with the court must, to the extent feasible, be consecutively paginated from beginning to end, including any attachments. Trial or other exhibits must be similarly numbered.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

Rule 16 is a new rule intended to create a uniform practice in the submission of documents to the court in all types of cases. The goal is that any part of the record will be able to be identified by either its title or a unique docket number and a single, serial, page number. Documents should begin on the first page as it is filed or served as page 1 and should continue in sequence to the last page of the document’s attachments, if any. (Attachments should be numbered in sequence, and without beginning a new sequence for any attachments.)

The rule does not dictate the location for page numbers, but they should normally be placed at the bottom of the page in a consistent place, either centered or in the lower right hand corner. The best location may vary to obviate obscuring any important information on the document. Placing numbers unduly close to the edge of the document may result in removal or truncation of the number in imaging or duplication, so a reasonable margin should be used. The rule does not require any format or process for applying the required page numbers.

This rule is intended to allow counsel, trial courts, and the appellate courts to locate portions of the record easily and with accuracy. The rule applies to all documents, but will be particularly valuable for affidavits with numerous attachments or trial exhibits that are not already paginated. Compliance with the rule will make it possible to avoid lengthy dialogue to get the court and counsel all on the correct page of a lengthy exhibit.

RULE 104. CIVIL COVER SHEET AND CERTIFICATE OF REPRESENTATION AND PARTIES

Except as otherwise provided in these rules for specific types of cases and in cases where the action is commenced by filing by operation of statute, a party filing a civil case shall, at the time of filing, notify the court administrator in writing of:

(a) If the case is a family case or a civil case listed in Rule 111.01 of this rule, the name, postal address, e-mail address, and telephone number of all counsel and ~~unrepresented parties~~ self-represented litigants, if known, in a Certificate of Representation and Parties (see Form CIV102 promulgated by the state court administrator and published on the website www.mncourts.gov).

RULE 105. WITHDRAWAL OF COUNSEL

After a lawyer has appeared for a party in any action, withdrawal will be effective only if written notice of withdrawal is served on all parties who have appeared, or their lawyers if represented by counsel, and is filed with the court administrator if any other ~~paper document~~ in the action has been filed. The notice of withdrawal shall include the address and phone number where the party can be served or notified of matters relating to the action.

Withdrawal of counsel does not create any right to continuance of any scheduled trial or hearing.

RULE 110. SELF-HELP PROGRAMS

Rule 110.09 Access to Records

All records made or received in connection with the official business of a Self-Help Program relating to the address, e-mail address, telephone number or residence of a Self-Represented Litigant are not accessible to the public or the other party. This rule applies only to records of the Self-Help Program. It does not excuse Self-Represented Litigants from other rules that may require them to disclose their contact information in a manner that makes such contact information available to others.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendments to Rule 110.09 add a protection of e-mail addresses received by the Self-Help Program. This rule does not require that information to be provided, but makes it clear that if it is provided, it is not available to either opposing party or to the public. The rule makes it clear that this provision relates only to the Self-Help Program, and does not create a broader confidentiality right for this information. This information may be required to be provided by other court rules, and may be held to be public under those rules.

RULE 113. ASSIGNMENT OF CASE(S) TO A SINGLE JUDGE

Rule 113.03 Assignment of Cases in More Than One District to a Single Judge

(b) Procedure. The motion shall identify by court, case title, case number, and judge assigned, if any, each case for which assignment to a single judge is requested. The motion shall also indicate the extent to which the movant anticipates that additional related cases may be filed. ~~An original and two copies of the~~ The motion shall be filed with the clerk of appellate courts. ~~A copy of the motion, and~~ shall be served on other counsel and any ~~unrepresented parties~~ self-represented litigants in all cases for which assignment is requested and shall be served on the chief judge of each district in which such an action is pending. Any party may file and serve a response within 5 days after service of the motion. Any reply shall be filed and served within 2 days of service of the response. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, the motion and any response shall comply with the requirements of Minn. R. Civ. App. P. 127 and 132.02.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendments to Rule 113.03(b) are not substantive in nature or intended effect. The term “self-represented litigant” is being used uniformly throughout the judicial branch and is preferable to “non-represented party” and “pro se party,” both to avoid a Latin phrase not used outside legal jargon and to facilitate the drafting of clearer rules. There is no need for multiple copies of this motion because it will be handled electronically even if filed in paper form, and because in cases where filings are required to be filed using the court’s E-Filing System, only a single copy of a motion can be filed.

RULE 114. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Rule 114.04 Selection of ADR Process

(b) Court Involvement. If the parties cannot agree on the appropriate ADR process, the timing of the process, or the selection of neutral, or if the court does not approve the parties’ agreement, the court shall, in cases subject to Rule 111, schedule a telephone or in-court conference of the attorneys and any self-represented litigants ~~unrepresented parties~~ within thirty days after the due date for filing initial case management statements pursuant to Rule 304.02 or the filing of a civil cover sheet pursuant to Rule 104 to discuss ADR and other scheduling and case management issues.

Rule 114.09 Arbitration Proceedings

(e) The Award.

(2) If no party has filed a request for a trial within 20 days after the award is filed, the court administrator shall enter the decision as a judgment and shall promptly ~~mail~~ transmit notice of entry of judgment to the parties. The judgment shall have the same force and effect as, and is subject to all provisions of law relating to, a judgment in a civil action or proceeding, except that it is not subject to appeal, and may not be attacked or set aside. The judgment may be enforced as if it had been rendered by the court in which it is entered.

Advisory Committee Comment—2015 Amendments

The amendment to Rule 114.04 is not substantive in nature or intended effect. The term “self-represented litigant” is being used uniformly throughout the judicial branch and is preferable to “non-represented party” and “pro se party,” both to avoid a Latin phrase not used outside legal jargon and to facilitate the drafting of clearer rules.

Rule 114.09 is amended to delete the requirement that the arbitrator must serve a copy of the award by first-class mail. Service is required, but service by mail is permitted, as is any other method authorized by the rules or ordered by the court with respect to the arbitration.

Advisory Committee Comment—1992 2015 Amendments

This rule was derived from Rule 28 of the Code of Rules for the District Courts. The rule is recodified with the probate court rules because it relates to actions brought in the now-unified district court.

Rule 417.06 is amended to ~~provide a specific method of notice rather than incorporating a specific statutory requirement. The former statute, Minnesota Statutes, section 501.35 was replaced by section 501B.18. The new statute, however, provides a general mechanism for order of hearing with published notice twenty days before the date of the hearing. This requirement is not necessary for hearings on accounts, as the interested parties will have been identified and known to the trustee at the time a hearing is scheduled. The rule does require notice to any party requesting notice of the hearing, and allows the court to specify another method of giving notice in a particular case. Although that might conceivably include published notice, published notice would be unusual.~~ incorporate the specific statutory notice required by Minnesota Statutes, section 501B.18 or its successor.
