

The Children’s Bureau’s National Resource Center on Legal and Judicial Issues Presents:
Understanding and Applying ICWA at the Local Level: Purpose, Strategies, Resources and Practice
August 21-22, 2014

Paulucci Office Building, Suite 400
4th Floor “Large Conference Room” of Minnesota Pollution Control Agency
525 Lake Ave. South (in Canal Park next to lift bridge)
Duluth, MN

National Faculty:

Hon. William Thorne, Jr. (Pomo Tribe), Retired Appellate Court Judge, Utah Court of Appeals
Hon. Kathleen Quigley, Presiding Judge, Pima County Superior Court, Juvenile Bench
Tom Lidot (Tlingit), Curriculum Coordinator, Tribal STAR Program / National Resource Center for Tribes

DAY ONE – AUGUST 22

8:30 – 9:00	Registration and Networking
9:00 – 10:00	Module I – Invocation, Welcome, Introduction and Objectives Participant Ice-Breaker
10:00 – 10:45	Module II – Historical and Cultural Perspectives on the ICWA
10:45 – 11:00	Break
11:00 – 12:00	Module II – Historical and Cultural Perspectives on the ICWA [Continued]
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch (on your own)
1:00 – 2:45	Module III – The Key Components of ICWA
2:45 – 3:15	Module IV – ICWA and Best Hearing Practice
3:15 – 3:30	Break
3:30 – 4:15	Module IV – ICWA and Best Hearing Practice [Continued]
4:15 – 5:00	Conclusion and wrap-up for the day

DAY TWO – AUGUST 22

9:00 – 9:15	Welcome Back and Reflections from Previous Day
9:15 – 10:00	Module V- ICWA and the Leadership Role of the Judge
10:00 – 10:15	Break
10:15 – 11:30	Module V- ICWA and the Leadership Role of the Judge: Action Planning
11:30 – 12:00	Module VI – Concluding the Training and Talking Circle
12:00	Adjourn