Attorneys for Norm Coleman

Pursuant to Minn. R. Civ. App. P. 127, Norm Coleman (“Coleman”) respectfully moves this Court for leave to intervene in this action. Petitioners ask this Court to resolve a question, whether Petitioners’ absentee ballots were properly rejected, which it already expressly determined is best left to a statutorily-prescribed election contest where evidence may be both gathered and presented. Coleman initiated such a contest on January 6, 2009, and seeks intervention now in order to protect his interest in the fair and accurate resolution of the November 4, 2008 election.

1. Candidates and related parties should be permitted to intervene in proceedings such as that brought by Petitioners. See, e.g., Erlandson v. Kiffmeyer, 659 N.W.2d 724, 726 (Minn. 2003); Studer v. Kiffmeyer, 712 N.W.2d 552, 554 n.3 (Minn. 2006).

2. Coleman has an interest in the relief sought in this proceeding, specifically, that the Court order that absentee ballots, cast in the November 4, 2008 general election and purportedly wrongly rejected, be opened and counted. Coleman is the incumbent candidate for the office of United States Senator for the State of Minnesota.

3. Coleman is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect his interests. Indeed, the Petition threatens to undermine the contest action already underway and in which this Court has indicated claims of this nature belong.

4. Coleman's claims and defenses have a common question of law and fact with those in this action.

5. Intervention will not unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties and will in fact help to ensure that the election is fairly resolved and that all ballots properly cast are counted.

6. Coleman has filed this application in a timely manner.
