

STATE OF MINNESOTA
IN SUPREME COURT
C2-84-2163

In the Matter of the Rules of the Minnesota Board of Continuing Legal Education

O R D E R

The Minnesota Board of Continuing Legal Education proposes to amend its rules to increase the fee for late filing of affidavits of compliance. The proposal is approved, and, therefore,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. That Rule 106(b) of the Rules of the Board of Continuing Legal Education is amended to read as follows:

- b. Affidavits received after the 60-day filing period, but before the issuance of a Notice of Noncompliance, including affidavits of lawyers who have been granted extensions by the Executive Director or the Board, shall be accompanied by a late filing fee of $25.00 made out to the Minnesota State Board of Continuing Legal Education. Affidavits received after the issuance of a Notice of Noncompliance pursuant to Rule 109, including affidavits of lawyers who have been granted extensions by the Executive Director or the Board, shall be accompanied by a late filing fee of $75.00 made out to the Minnesota State Board of Continuing Legal education.

2. That Rule 109(a) is amended to read as follows:

- a. If a lawyer fails to request and obtain an extension of time in which to file or fails to meet the requirements of the Supreme Court Rules for Continuing Legal Education of Members of the Bar or of these Rules, the Executive Director shall send to the lawyer by registered or certified mail, directed to the lawyer's last known address or the address currently maintained on the Supreme Court or attorney registration records, a notice of noncompliance. The nature of the noncompliance shall be specified in the notice. The notice shall advise the lawyer that he or she may, within 30 days of the mailing of the notice, file a request for a hearing.

If no hearing is requested in such period it shall be deemed acquiescence by the lawyer in the Executive Director's finding.
