Amendment to the Rules of the Minnesota Supreme Court and Rules of the Minnesota Board of Continuing Legal Education of Members of the Bar

ORDER

WHEREAS, the Rules of the Minnesota Supreme Court and Rules of the Minnesota Board for Continuing Legal Education of Members of the Bar provide at Rule 106 (b) "Reporting of Attendance at Approved Courses" for the payment of late filing fees for attorneys who file affidavits of CLE compliance after the date upon which the affidavits are due;

WHEREAS, Rule 112(a) "Transfer from Restricted Status, Notice to Director" provides for the collection of a fee for transfer from restricted to active status;

WHEREAS, attorneys who do not file affidavits of compliance in a timely manner increase the workload of the office of the Board of Continuing Legal Education;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, that fees charged to attorneys for late filing of affidavits and fees charged for transfer from restricted to active status are increased in the amounts indicated below in Rules 106(b) and Rule 112(a) of the Rules of the Board for Continuing Legal Education.

Rule No. 106 Reporting of Attendance at Approved Courses.

- b. Affidavits received after the 60-day filing period, but before the issuance of a Notice of Noncompliance, including affidavits of lawyers who have been granted extensions by the Director or the Board, shall be accompanied by a late filing fee of ~~$25.00~~ $50.00 made out to the Minnesota State Board of Continuing Legal Education. Affidavits received after the issuance of a notice of noncompliance pursuant to Rule 109, including affidavits of lawyers who have been granted extensions by the Director or the Board, shall be accompanied by a late filing fee of ~~$75.00~~ $100.00 made out to the Minnesota State Board of Continuing Legal Education.

Rule No. 112 Transfer from Restricted Status.

- a. Notice to Director. A lawyer on restricted status who wishes to resume active status shall notify the Director in writing accompanied by a transfer fee of ~~$400.00~~ $125.00 made out to the Minnesota State Board of Continuing Legal Education. Upon receipt of the notice, the Director shall advise the lawyer of his or her transfer requirements. Upon determining that the lawyer has completed those requirements, the Director shall notify the Supreme Court.
