

STATE OF MINNESOTA
IN SUPREME COURT
C3-88-1547

ORDER

WHEREAS, Laws of Minnesota 1989, Chapter 335, Article III, §54 provides that the counties that make up the Eighth Judicial District shall continue to levy for and pay the costs to operate the Eighth Judicial District and public defense services that the state does not fund during the Eighth Judicial District Pilot Project, and that the Supreme Court shall certify to the counties the amount necessary in excess of the Eighth Judicial District Pilot Project costs;

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court has consulted with the local administrators and the Board of Public Defense concerning operational costs for the period July 1, 1990 through June 30, 1991, the state fiscal year;

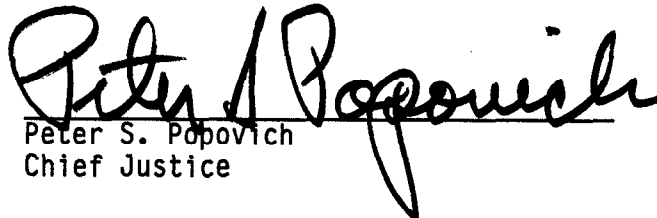

WHEREAS, the combined budgets of the courts of the counties in the Eighth Judicial District including the juvenile misdemeanor defense function exceed the state appropriation for the Eighth District Pilot Project by $740,000;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered that shortfall be prorated to the counties in the Eighth District as follows:

Big Stone	$ 31,450
Chippewa	60,828
