

Brandi Stavlo, is the Program Coordinator for the Ramsey County Mental Health Court (RCMHC) in St. Paul, Minnesota. Ms. Stavlo has worked for the Second Judicial District Court since 2005, and prior to that worked in the nonprofit sector as a mental health counselor, crisis and outreach counselor, and child advocate. Ms. Stavlo has represented RCMHC on several state and county committees focused on mental health issues, including the Police Round Table; Community/Homeless/Mental Health Committee; Ramsey County Community Human Services Citizens Advisory Council, Adult Mental Health Committee; and the National Alliance on Mental Illness of Minnesota (NAMI-MN) Criminal Justice Advisory Committee. Recently, Ms. Stavlo was trained nationally by the Council of State Governments Justice Center in Developing a Mental Health Court: An Interdisciplinary Curriculum to provide training to jurisdictions within Minnesota who are interested in starting a mental health court or improving their existing program. Ms. Stavlo received her Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology from the College of St. Benedict and earned her Masters of Social Work (MSW) degree from the University of St. Thomas and College of St. Catherine.