

The Honorable William H. Leary has been a district court judge since 2002, and is one of three judges who serve on the Ramsey County Mental Health Court. His other assignments have included Civil Commitment Court and presiding over several trials involving the indeterminate commitment of Sexually Dangerous Persons. He is an adjunct professor at the University of St. Thomas Law School; a supervising Judge for St. Thomas Law School, University of Minnesota Law School and Hamline Law School Extern programs; and has written and spoken on various law topics. He has served as a volunteer, board member and chair of various local organizations.