In Re: Court Record Project

STANDING ORDER
Relating to the
Official Court Record

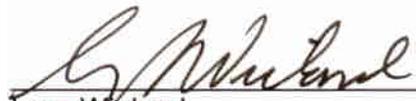

WHEREAS, in the interest of creating an accurate, verbatim court record in the absence of Official Court Reporters being physically present in each courtroom, the Fourth Judicial District has implemented an electronic recording system in various courtrooms in the district;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE FOLLOWING IS THE STANDING ORDER OF THE COURT:

1. The electronic recording medium shall be the exclusive property of the Office of the Chief Judge of the Fourth Judicial District. The contents of the electronic recording medium shall be disseminated by transcript only, which transcript shall be the official court record.
2. A transcript of the electronic recording medium is obtained by completing a "Transcript Request Form" which is available from the Court Record Project Coordinator.
