ORDER APPOINTING MEMBERS TO
SUPREME COURT TASK FORCE ON LEGAL CERTIFICATION REVIEW

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court in 1985 established a Board of Legal Certification and adopted rules for certifying legal specialties;

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court requested the Board of Legal Certification to conduct a self evaluation, which the Court received in October 2005.

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court desires to be more fully informed about specialist certification policy options in the following areas:

- A. The continuing value to the public of specialty certification;
- B. The continuing professional demand for certification based on the number of certified legal specialists and certifying agencies;
- C. The appropriateness of board initiated expansion of areas of certification and the methods of accomplishing expansion, if necessary;
- D. Consideration of effectiveness of the Minnesota model of certification in comparison to models ranging from direct certification to delegation to some other body used in other states.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the following persons be, and hereby are, appointed as members of the Supreme Court Task Force on Legal Certification Review to provide an independent evaluation, building on the Report of the Board of Legal Certification, in each of the areas identified above and make policy recommendations to the Supreme Court:
