

STATE OF MINNESOTA
IN SUPREME COURT

* * * * *

IT IS ORDERED, That the rules of this court for admission to the bar be, and they are hereby modified with reference to seniors in approved law schools, who are entering the armed services of the United States or the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Such a senior will be admitted to the bar of this state without examination upon a certificate of the law school that he has maintained an average in his studies, which places him in the highest eighty per cent of those to be graduated in his class, and which if maintained to the end of the school year would entitle him to a diploma in the degree of Bachelor of Laws, and a statement by such law school that in its opinion the candidate is of good moral character and otherwise in every respect qualified for admission to the bar, and that a diploma will be issued to him by the school. In the case of students from the St. Paul College of Law who applied for admission prior to the meeting of the section on legal education of the American Bar Association, held February 28 and March 1, 1942, the diploma will not be required.

A graduate of an approved law school who has maintained an average in his studies which places him in the highest eighty per cent of those who graduated in his class may be admitted upon a statement by such law school that he has graduated from the school and the date of graduation and that in its opinion the applicant is of good moral character and otherwise in every respect qualified for admission to the bar.

Application for admission shall be made directly to the State Board of Law Examiners on the usual form and the general requirements now in force as to pre-legal education and affidavits from two practicing attorneys shall apply. No application fee will be required.
Dated March 10, 1942.

BY THE COURT:

HENRY M. GALLAGHER
Chief Justice.
