

BOARD OF LAW EXAMINERS REPORT TO THE COURT

SUBJECT: Furnishing of New Offices of the State Board of Law Examiners, Suite 920, Capitol Square Building.

DATED: May 7, 1969

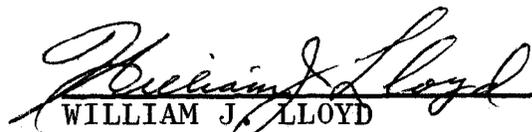

WHEREAS, the State Board of Law Examiners at its meeting of March 28, 1969, after careful analysis of its terms, executed the lease of the office space known as Suite 920 of the Capitol Square Building in conformity with the Order of the Court under date of March 20, 1969, and

WHEREAS, it appeared necessary that the new offices be appropriately furnished, the Board unanimously resolved that the Court be requested to authorize the purchase of necessary and appropriate furnishings and equipment, and that it authorize the expenditure of not to exceed Five Thousand and no/100 ($5,000.00) Dollars for that purpose.

WHEREAS, negotiations have now been completed with St. Paul Book and Stationery Company to provide the said furnishings and equipment for the price of Three Thousand Nine Hundred Twenty-Three and 99/100 ($3,923.99) Dollars;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is recommended and requested that the Supreme Court of the State of Minnesota authorize the expenditure of that sum for the stated purpose.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

WILLIAM J. LLOYD
Director of Bar Admissions
