In re Rules Relating to Continuing Legal Education

O R D E R

WHEREAS a hearing was held before this court on June 6, 1980, to consider a proposed rule requiring active members of the bar and judiciary to complete in each three-year period at least five hours attendance at, or participation in, approved courses dealing with legal and judicial ethics and judicial administration, and

WHEREAS, as a result of said hearing, the Court on August 12, 1980, appointed the following committee to study the proposed rule and make suitable recommendations:

Peter N. Thompson - Chairman
Conrad M. Fredin
Gerald E. Magnuson
John P. Byron
Frank V. Harris

WHEREAS said committee on April 10, 1981, reported their recommendations to the court,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Rule 2 of the Rules Relating to Continuing Legal Education for the Bar of the State of Minnesota be and it hereby is amended by adding the following:

"Sponsors of Continuing Legal Education courses shall apply for credit in accordance with the rules of the Board promulgated pursuant to Rule 7, below.

"In applying for credit a sponsoring agency shall submit to the Board a description of the program under consideration, including such details as location, description, list of speakers, type of presentation, number of course hours for which credit is sought and such other matters as the Board may require pursuant to Rule 7. In addition, the sponsoring agency shall submit to the Board a description of the treatment given Professional Responsibility and ethical considerations involved in the substantive or procedural courses under consideration. If no coverage of these areas is scheduled, the sponsoring agency shall state the reasons therefor.

"If in the opinion of the Board, presentation of problems of Professional Responsibility or legal ethics are omitted, or inadequate without satisfactory explanation, the Board may refuse to grant full credit for all hours in attendance, impose a deduction from credit hours which would otherwise be granted, and in the case of persistent refusal to cover these topics refuse to grant further credit for courses offered by that sponsor.

"If the Board deducts Continuing Legal Education credit, or refuses to grant credit on this basis, it shall so inform the sponsor."

Dated: June 29th, 1981.
