

STATE OF MINNESOTA
IN SUPREME COURT

ORDER AMENDING RULE IX OF THE RULES FOR ADMISSION TO THE BAR

IT IS ORDERED that the first paragraph of Rule IX of the Rules for Admission to the Bar be amended to read as follows:

"An attorney-at-law duly admitted to practice in other states or territories or in the District of Columbia desiring admission to the practice of law in this state shall submit his application to the board upon forms prescribed by the board. Upon proof that he has been admitted to practice in the highest court of such other jurisdiction or jurisdictions and has been actively engaged in practicing law therein, or has been engaged in full-time law teaching in an approved law school or schools, or a combination of both, for at least five years next preceding his application, the examination may, upon the recommendation of the board, and in the discretion of the court, be waived and the applicant admitted to the practice of law upon motion without examination."

Dated February 10, 1958.
