Minnesota
Court of Appeals

Welcome to the Minnesota Court of Appeals, the state's intermediate appellate court. You are about to hear oral arguments in an appeal. The 19-judge Court of Appeals hears an appeal in a three-judge panel at which no new evidence or testimony are offered. Instead, the Court reviews the decisions and procedures of the lower court or agency and decides whether an error occurred.

What happens during oral arguments?

- Marshal calls court to order; audience stands. During oral arguments, the marshal maintains courtroom decorum and ensures that attorneys adhere to time limitations.
- Three judges enter the courtroom. Court of Appeals cases are heard in three-judge panels. Prior to oral arguments, judges prepare by reading “briefs,” or written arguments submitted by the parties involved. The judges sit in order of seniority, with the presiding judge in the middle.
- Appellant’s attorney argues the case. The attorney representing the appealing party also answers judges’ questions about his/her legal argument. Fifteen minutes are allotted with five minutes for rebuttal.
- Respondent’s attorney argues and answers judges’ questions. Fifteen minutes are allotted.

- Judges conference the case. One judge is assigned to draft the Court’s “opinion” or decision, which is discussed during conference.
- Judges draft and revise the opinion. The draft is circulated among the members of the three-judge panel. A judge on the panel may also write a “concurring opinion” – agreeing with the decision but for different reasons – or a “dissenting opinion” – disagreeing with the majority opinion. Once the judges agree on a final draft, the opinion is circulated to the entire Court of Appeals for comments.
- Opinion filed with Clerk of Appellate Courts, released to public via the Judicial Branch web site www.mncourts.gov. The Court of Appeals releases its opinion within 90 days.
