15. Detail the actions taken by you to confirm that the responses to the above requests are true and accurate.

I have made a good faith effort to collect birth and death certificates, marriage licenses and divorce decrees where relevant. I have provided copies, and am able to provide certified copies. I have spoken with my siblings, other relatives, and family friends to complete and confirm my recollections.

16. If you contend additional information is needed or should be considered by the Special Administrator to support your claim to be an heir, please provide such information.

I believe that I am Prince Rogers Nelson's natural half sibling. My father, Loyal James Gresham, Jr. had an affair with Maddie Shaw in 1957. My father told me that he is the father of Prince Rogers Nelson. My father told me "Prince could be your sibling." My father and Maddie Shaw knew each other all their lives. They were close friends. They collaborated musically. They often went to gigs together. They brought their families together often. I know that they saw each other regularly throughout their lives, at least once a year.

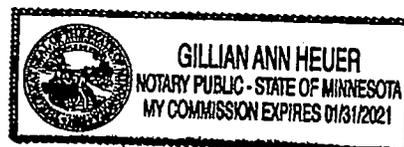

My father told me that he did not openly acknowledge Prince as his son out of respect for Maddie and her then husband and my father's friend, John Nelson. My father did not want to hurt Maddie or get her "into trouble." Our father sent me and my sister Jimmar Sandifer to Maddie Shaw's funeral and to pay his respects for him, as he was too ill to travel. It is believed that Maddie told Prince that Loyal was his father shortly before she died.

Further your affiant sayeth naught.

Re: Heirship Claim of Orrine (NMN) Gresham

Dear Mr. Parkhurst:

Thank you for submitting the Affidavit of Orrine (nmn) Gresham Responding to the Special Administrator's Request for Parentage Information.

With respect to the Protocol adopted by the Court, the Special Administrator's goal is to apply existing Minnesota law equally to all persons claiming to potentially be an heir of the Decedent. Such relevant law includes the Minnesota Probate Code (Minn. Stat. Ch. 524), the Minnesota Parentage Act (Minn. Stat. §§ 257.01 through 257.75) and Minnesota common law.

Under Minnesota law, if it is determined that Decedent is not the father of any living children (or their descendants), then Decedent's siblings and half-siblings (and descendants of any deceased siblings and half-siblings) may be determined to be heirs, in the event no Will is found. Minn. Stat. § 524.2-103(3). To be a sibling or half-sibling, a person must share at least one genetic parent with Decedent. Id. Because they were married when Decedent was born, Mattie Della (Shaw) ("Mattie") and John Lewis Nelson ("John") are presumed to be Decedent's genetic parents. Minn. Stat. § 257.55, subd. 1(a).<sup>7</sup> Only a very limited group of persons have standing to challenge that presumption, and, in any event, the time to make such a challenge passed long ago. Minn. Stat. § 257.57, subd. 1(b). As such, there is an irrebuttable presumption that John and Mattie are Decedent's genetic parents. Id.; Minn. Stat. § 524.1.201(22) and (23); see also In re Estate of Jotham, 722 N.W.2d 447, 455-56 (2006). Thus, to potentially qualify as an heir of Decedent as a sibling or half-sibling, the claimant must be a descendant of either Mattie or John (or both).

Based on the materials submitted by your client, Ms. Gresham's claim is dependent upon another person other than John being determined to be Decedent's father. But as noted above, the presumption that John is Decedent's genetic father is conclusive and cannot be challenged at this point. As such, it is the Special Administrator's determination that the evidence presented by Orrine (nmn) Gresham is insufficient to warrant genetic testing.

Very truly yours,
