

Ramsey ENE Roster Requirements as of May 2015

Ramsey FENE:

- Be a qualified evaluative neutral pursuant to Rule 114.13(e) of the Minnesota General Rules of Practice;
- At least 5 years of experience as a family law attorney or as an accountant in marital dissolution related matters;
- Have completed or taught the financial early neutral evaluation FENE specialized training;
- Have completed two approved FENE ride-a-longs and submit who these were conducted with; or submit in writing an explanation of why this requirement should be waived.
- Be able to structure your practice to accommodate expedient scheduling requirements;
- Accept and abide by the Second Judicial District Family Court Division FENE sliding fee scale; and
- Have an attorney or other applicable professional license in good standing with the State of Minnesota, either in active or retired status.

Ramsey SENE:

- Be a qualified evaluative neutral pursuant to Rule 114.13(e) of the Minnesota General Rules of Practice;
- Accept and abide by the Second Judicial District Family Court Division SENE sliding fee scale;
- Have completed two approved SENE ride-a-longs and submit who these were conducted with; or submit in writing an explanation of why this requirement should be waived.
- Be able to structure your practice to accommodate expedient scheduling requirements;
- Attorney candidates shall have:
 - At least five (5) years of experience as a family law attorney, and
 - An attorney license in good standing with the Minnesota Supreme Court, either in active or retired status.
- Other professional candidates shall have:
 - At least five (5) years of experience as a professional working in the area of family law with parenting matters, and
 - A professional license in good standing with the State of Minnesota, either in active or retired status.