AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

Note to publishers: Deletions are indicated by a line drawn through the words; additions are underlined. New text that should be underlined in the final publication is indicated by a double underline.

1. Rule 1.04. Definitions

Amend Rule 1.04 by adding a new paragraph (d) as follows:

(d) Aggravated Sentence. As used in these rules, the term “aggravated sentence” refers to a sentence that is an upward durational or dispositional departure from the presumptive sentence provided for in the Minnesota Sentencing Guidelines based upon aggravating circumstances or a statutory sentencing enhancement.

2. Comments – Rule 1

Amend the comments to Rule 1 by adding a new paragraph at the end of the existing comments as follows:

Rule 1.04 (d) defines “aggravated sentence” for the purpose of the provisions in these rules governing the procedure that a sentencing court must follow to impose an upward sentencing departure in compliance with Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296, 124 S.Ct. 2531 (2004). On June 24, 2004, the United States Supreme Court decided in Blakely that an upward departure in sentencing under the State of Washington’s determinate sentencing system violated the defendant’s Sixth Amendment rights where the additional findings required to justify the departure were not made beyond a reasonable doubt by a jury. The definition is in accord with existing Minnesota case law holding that Blakely applies to upward departures under the Minnesota Sentencing Guidelines and under various sentencing enhancement statutes requiring additional factual findings. See, e.g., State v. Shattuck, 704 N.W.2d 131 (Minn. 2005) (durational departures); State v. Allen, 706 N.W.2d 40 (Minn. 2005) (dispositional departures); State v. Leake, 699 N.W.2d 312 (Minn. 2005) (life sentence without release under Minnesota Statutes, section 609.106); State v. Barker, 705 N.W.2d 768 (Minn. 2005) (firearm sentence enhancements under Minnesota Statutes, section 609.11); and State v. Henderson, 706 N.W.2d 758 (Minn. 2005) (career offender sentence enhancements under Minnesota Statutes section 609.1095, subd. 4). However, these Blakely-related protections and procedures do not apply retroactively to sentences that were imposed and were no longer subject to direct appeal by the time that Blakely was decided on June 24, 2004. State v. Houston, 702 N.W.2d 268 (Minn. 2005). Also, the protections and procedures do not apply to sentencing departures and enhancements that are based solely on a defendant’s criminal conviction history such as the assessment of a custody status point under the Minnesota Sentencing Guidelines. State v. Allen, 706 N.W.2d 40 (Minn. 2005). For aggravated sentence procedures related to Blakely, see Rule 7.03 (notice of prosecutor’s intent to seek an aggravated sentence in proceedings prosecuted by complaint); Rule 9.01, subd. 1(7) (discovery of evidence relating to an aggravated sentence); Rule 11.04 (Omnibus Hearing decisions on aggravated sentence issues); Rule 15.01, subd. 2 and Appendices E and F (required questioning and written petition provisions concerning defendant's admission of facts supporting an aggravated sentence and accompanying waiver of rights); Rule 19.04, subd. 6(3) (notice of prosecutor's intent to seek an aggravated sentence in proceedings prosecuted by indictment); Rule 26.01, subd. 1(2)(b) (waiver of right to a jury trial determination of facts supporting an aggravated sentence); Rule 26.01, subd. 3 (stipulation of facts to support an aggravated sentence and accompanying waiver of rights); Rules 26.03, subd. 17(1) and (3) (motion that evidence submitted to jury was insufficient to support an aggravated sentence); Rule 26.03, subd. 18(6) (verdict forms); Rule 26.03, subd. 19(5) (polling the jury); and Rule 26.04, subd. 1 (new trial on aggravated sentence issue). The procedures provided in these rules for the determination of aggravated sentence issues supersede the procedures concerning those issues in Minnesota Statutes, section 244.10 (see 2005 Minnesota Laws, chapter 136, article 16, sections 3-6) or other statutes.

3. Rule 7. Notice by Prosecuting Attorney of Evidence and Identification Procedures; Completion of Discovery

Create a new Rule 7.03 as follows, and renumber existing Rule 7.03 as Rule 7.04:

Rule 7.03. Notice of Prosecutor's Intent to Seek an Aggravated Sentence

At least seven days prior to the Omnibus Hearing, or at such later time if permitted by the court upon good cause shown and upon such conditions as will not unfairly prejudice the defendant, the prosecuting attorney shall notify the defendant or defense counsel in writing of intent to seek an aggravated sentence. The notice shall include the grounds or statutes relied upon and a summary statement of the factual basis supporting the aggravated sentence.

4. Comments – Rule 7

Insert a new paragraph after the existing fourth paragraph and amend the existing fifth and sixth paragraphs of the comments to Rule 7 as follows:

Rule 7.03 establishes the notice requirements for a prosecutor to initiate proceedings seeking an aggravated sentence in compliance with Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296, 124 S.Ct. 2531 (2004). See Rule 1.04(d) as to the definition of "aggravated sentence." Also, see the comments to that rule. The written notice required by Rule 7.03 must include not only the grounds or statute relied upon, but also a summary statement of the supporting factual basis. However, there is no requirement that the factual basis be given under oath. In developing this rule, the Advisory Committee was concerned that if prosecutors were required to provide notice too early in the proceedings, they may not yet have sufficient information to make that decision and therefore may be inclined to overcharge. On the other hand it is important that defendants and defense counsel have adequate advance notice of the aggravated sentence allegations so that they can defend against them. Further, the earlier that accurate, complete aggravated sentence notices are given, the more likely it is that cases can be settled, and at an earlier point in the proceedings. The requirement of the rule that notice be given at least seven days before the Omnibus Hearing balances these important, sometimes competing, policy considerations. However, the rule recognizes that it may not always be possible to give notice by that time and the court may permit a later notice for good cause shown so long as the later notice will not unfairly prejudice the defendant. In making that decision the court can consider whether a continuance of the proceedings or other conditions would cure any unfair prejudice to the defendant. Pretrial issues concerning a requested aggravated sentence will be considered and decided under the Omnibus Hearing provisions of Rule 11.04.

Rule 7.037.04 requires that the discovery provided by Rules 9.01, subd. 1; 9.02, subd. 1, to be made without order of court shall be completed by the prosecution and defense before the Omnibus Hearing (Rule 11). This will permit the court to resolve at the Omnibus Hearing any issues that may have arisen between the parties with respect to discovery (Rules 9.03, subd. 8; 11.04). It may also result in a plea of guilty at the Omnibus Hearing (Rule 11.07). All notices under Rule 7 shall also be filed with the court (Rule 33.04).

Rule 7.037.04, in misdemeanor cases, requires the prosecutor upon request of the defendant or defense counsel at any time before trial to permit inspection of the police investigatory reports in the case. Additionally, upon request of the defendant or defense counsel, the prosecutor is obligated to provide a reproduction of the police investigatory reports to the defendants or defense counsel after the arraignment. This obligation of the prosecutor to provide a reproduction of such reports may be satisfied not just by photocopying, but by other existing or future methods that permit transmission of an exact reproduction to the defendant or defense counsel. This would include E-mail or facsimile transmission if the defendant or defense counsel has the equipment necessary to receive such transmissions. The provision of the rule permitting free copies to public defenders and attorneys working for public defense corporation under Minnesota Statutes, section 611.216 is in accord with Minnesota Statutes, section 611.271. Under this rule the prosecutor should reveal not only the reports physically in the prosecutor's possession, but also those concerning the case which are yet in the possession of the police. This disclosure of investigatory reports is already the practice of many prosecutors and in most misdemeanor cases should be sufficient discovery. This type of discovery is particularly important in misdemeanor cases where prosecution can be initiated upon a tab charge (Rule 4.02, subd. 5(3)), without a complaint or indictment. A defendant, of course, may request a complaint under Rule 4.02, subd. 5(3), to be better informed of the charges, but it is expected that complaints will seldom be requested when the investigatory reports are disclosed to the defendant.

5. Rule 9.01. Disclosure by Prosecution

Amend Rule 9.01, subd. 1, as follows:

Subd. 1. Disclosure by Prosecution Without Order of Court. Without order of court and except as provided in Rule 9.01, subdivision 3, the prosecuting attorney on request of defense counsel shall, before the date set for Omnibus Hearing provided for by Rule 11, allow access at any reasonable time to all matters within the prosecuting attorney's possession or control which relate to the case and make the following disclosures:

(1) Trial Witnesses; Grand Jury Witnesses; Other Persons.

(a) The prosecuting attorney shall disclose to defense counsel the names and addresses of the persons intended to be called as witnesses at the trial together with their prior record of convictions, if any, within the prosecuting attorney's actual knowledge. The prosecuting attorney shall permit defense counsel to inspect and reproduce such witnesses' relevant written or recorded statements and any written summaries within the prosecuting attorney's knowledge of the substance of relevant oral statements made by such witnesses to prosecution agents.

(b) The fact that the prosecution has supplied the name of a trial witness to defense counsel shall not be commented on in the presence of the jury.

(c) If the defendant is charged by indictment, the prosecuting attorney shall disclose to defense counsel the names and addresses of the witnesses who testified before the grand jury in the case against the defendant.

(d) The prosecuting attorney shall disclose to defense counsel the names and the addresses of persons having information relating to the case.

(2) Statements. The prosecuting attorney shall disclose and permit defense counsel to inspect and reproduce any relevant written or recorded statements which relate to the case within the possession or control of the prosecution, the existence of which is known by the prosecuting attorney, and shall provide defense counsel with the substance of any oral statements which relate to the case.

(3) Documents and Tangible Objects. The prosecuting attorney shall disclose and permit defense counsel to inspect and reproduce books, grand jury minutes or transcripts, law enforcement officer reports, reports on prospective jurors, papers, documents, photographs and tangible objects which relate to the case and the prosecuting attorney shall also permit defense counsel to inspect and photograph buildings or places which relate to the case.

(4) Reports of Examinations and Tests. The prosecuting attorney shall disclose and permit defense counsel to inspect and reproduce any results or reports of physical or mental examinations, scientific tests, experiments or comparisons made in connection with the particular case. The prosecuting attorney shall allow the defendant to have reasonable tests made. If a scientific test or experiment of any matter, except those conducted under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 169, may preclude any further tests or experiments, the prosecuting attorney shall give the defendant reasonable notice and an opportunity to have a qualified expert observe the test or experiment.

(5) Criminal Record of Defendant and Defense Witnesses. The prosecuting attorney shall inform defense counsel of the records of prior convictions of the defendant and of any defense witnesses disclosed under Rule 9.02, subd. 1(3)(a), that are known to the prosecuting attorney provided the defense counsel informs the prosecuting attorney of any such records known to the defendant.

(6) Exculpatory Information. The prosecuting attorney shall disclose to defense counsel any material or information within the prosecuting attorney's possession and control that tends to negate or reduce the guilt of the accused as to the offense charged.

(7) Evidence Relating to Aggravated Sentence. The prosecuting attorney shall disclose to the defendant or defense counsel all evidence not otherwise disclosed upon which the prosecutor intends to rely in seeking an aggravated sentence.

(78) Scope of Prosecutor's Obligations. The prosecuting attorney's obligations under this rule extend to material and information in the possession or control of members of the prosecution staff and of any others who have participated in the investigation or evaluation of the case and who either regularly report or with reference to the particular case have reported to the prosecuting attorney's office.

6. Comments – Rule 9

Insert a new paragraph after the existing eighteenth paragraph and amend the existing nineteenth paragraph of the comments to Rule 9 as follows:

Rule 9.01, subd. 1(7) requires the prosecuting attorney to disclose to the defendant or defense counsel all evidence not otherwise disclosed upon which the prosecuting attorney intends to rely in seeking an aggravated sentence under Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296, 124 S.Ct. 2531 (2004). The prosecuting attorney also has a continuing duty to disclose such evidence under Rule 9.03, subd. 2. See Rule 1.04(d) for the definition of "aggravated sentence" and also see the comments to that rule.

The scope of the prosecutor's obligations (Rule 9.01, subd. 1(78)) to make the disclosure required by Rule 9.01, subd. 1, is taken from ABA Standards, Discovery and Procedure Before Trial, 2.1(d) (Approved Draft, 1970).

7. Rule 11.04. Other Issues

Amend Rule 11.04 as follows:

Rule 11.04. Other Issues

The Omnibus Hearing may include a pretrial dispositional conference to determine whether the case can be resolved without scheduling it for trial. The court shall ascertain any other constitutional, evidentiary, procedural or other issues that may be heard or disposed of before trial and such other matters as will promote a fair and expeditious trial, and shall hear and determine them, or continue the hearing for that purpose as permitted by Rule 11.07.

If the prosecution has given notice under Rule 7.02 of intention to offer evidence of additional offenses, upon motion a hearing shall be held to determine their admissibility under Rule 404(b) of the Minnesota Rules of Evidence and whether there is clear and convincing evidence that defendant committed the offenses.

If the prosecutor has given notice under Rule 7.03 or 19.04, subd. 6(3) of intent to seek an aggravated sentence, a hearing shall be held to determine whether the law and proffered evidence support an aggravated sentence. If so, the court shall determine whether the issues will be presented to the jury in a unitary or bifurcated trial.

In deciding whether to bifurcate the trial, the court shall consider whether the evidence in support of an aggravated sentence is otherwise admissible in the guilt phase of the trial and whether unfair prejudice would result to the defendant in a unitary trial. A bifurcated trial shall be ordered where evidence in support of an aggravated sentence includes evidence that is inadmissible during the guilt phase of the trial or would result in unfair prejudice to the defendant. If the court orders a unitary trial the court may still order separate final arguments on the issues of guilt and the aggravated sentence.

If the defendant intends to offer evidence of a victim's previous sexual conduct in a prosecution for violation of Minnesota Statutes, sections 609.342 to 609.346, a motion shall be made pursuant to the procedures prescribed by Rule 412 of the Minnesota Rules of Evidence.

8. Comments – Rule 11

Amend the fifth paragraph of the comments to Rule 11 as follows:

By that time, the prosecution will have given the Rasmussen and Spreigl notices (Rules 7.01; 7.02; 19.04, subd. 6(1) and (2)); the Rasmussen hearing will have been either waived or demanded (Rule 8.03); the discovery required without order of court will have been completed (Rules ~~7.03~~7.04; 19.04, subd. 7; 9.01, subd. 1; 9.02, subd. 1); and pre-trial motions will have been served (Rules 10.04, subd. 1; 9.01, subd. 2; 9.02, subd. 2; 9.03, subd. 8; 18.02, subd. 2; 18.05, subds. 1 and 2; 17.03, subds. 3 and 4; 17.04; 17.06, subd. 3; 20.01, subd. 2; 20.03, subd. 1). (In the case of an indictment the pre-trial motions should include any motion to suppress based on the disclosures contained in the Rasmussen notice under Rule 19.04, subd. 6(1).)

Insert a new paragraph after the existing thirteenth paragraph of the comments to Rule 11 as follows:

If the prosecuting attorney has given notice under Rule 7.03 or 19.04, subd. 6(3) of intent to seek an aggravated sentence, Rule 11.04 requires the court to have a hearing to determine any pretrial issues that need to be resolved in connection with that request. This could include issues as to the timeliness of the notice under Rule 7.03 or 19.04, subd. 6(3). The court must determine whether the proposed grounds legally support an aggravated sentence and whether or not the proffered evidence is sufficient to proceed to trial. The rule does not provide a standard for determining insufficiency of the evidence claims and that is left to case law development. If the aggravated sentence claim will be presented to a jury, the court must also decide whether the evidence will be presented in a unitary or a bifurcated trial and the rule provides the standards for making that determination. Even if a unitary trial is ordered for the presentation of evidence, the rule recognizes that presentation of argument on an aggravated sentence during the guilt phase of the proceedings may unduly prejudice a defendant. The rule therefore allows the court to order separate final arguments on the aggravated sentence issue, if necessary, after the jury renders its verdict on the issue of guilt.

9. Rule 15. Procedure Upon Plea of Guilty; Plea Agreements; Plea Withdrawal; Plea to Lesser Offense

Amend the title to Rule 15 as follows:

Rule 15. Procedure Upon Plea of Guilty; Plea Agreements; Plea Withdrawal; Plea to Lesser Offense; Aggravated Sentence

Amend Rule 15.01 as follows:

8. a. Whether the defendant has been told by defense counsel, and understands that if the defendant wishes to plead not guilty and have a trial, the prosecutor will be required to have the prosecution witnesses testify in open court in the defendant's presence, and that the defendant will have the right, through defense counsel, to question these witnesses.

b. Whether the defendant waives the right to have these witnesses testify in the defendant's presence in court and be questioned by defense counsel.

e. That the prosecutor is seeking an aggravated sentence.

11. Whether defense counsel has told the defendant that the defendant discussed the case with one of the prosecuting attorneys, and that the respective attorneys agreed that if the defendant entered a plea of guilty the prosecutor will do the following: (state the substance of the plea agreement.)

Whether defense counsel has told the defendant and the defendant understands that if the plea of guilty is for any reason not accepted by the court, or is withdrawn by the defendant with the court's approval, or is withdrawn by court order on appeal or other review, that the defendant will stand trial on the original charge (charges) namely, (state the offense) (which would include any charges that were dismissed as a result of the plea agreement) and that the prosecution could proceed just as if there had never been any agreement.

15. a. Whether the defendant has been told by defense counsel and understands, that if the defendant wishes to plead not guilty and have a jury trial, the defendant can testify if the defendant wishes, but that if the defendant decided not to testify, neither the prosecutor nor the judge could comment to the jury about the failure to testify.

b. Whether the defendant waives this right, and agrees to tell the court about the facts of the crime.

16. Whether with knowledge and understanding of these rights the defendant still wishes to enter a plea of guilty or instead wishes to plead not guilty.

17. Whether the defendant makes any claim of innocence.

18. Whether the defendant is under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs or under mental disability or under medical or psychiatric treatment.

have been read to the defendant, and that the defendant understands them; that the defendant gave the answers set forth in the petition; and that they are true. If an aggravated sentence is sought, refer to subdivision 2 of this rule.)

Subd. 2. Aggravated Sentence.

4. Whether the defendant has been told by defense counsel and understands that even though the defendant has pled guilty to or has otherwise been found guilty of the crime of _____, defendant may nonetheless deny the facts alleged by the prosecution which would support an aggravated sentence.

5. a. Whether the defendant has been told by defense counsel and understands that if defendant chooses to deny the facts alleged in support of an aggravated sentence, the defendant has a right to a trial by either a jury or a judge to determine whether those facts have been proven, and that a finding that the facts are proven is not possible unless all jurors agree.

b. Whether the defendant waives the right to a trial by a jury or a judge of the facts in support of an aggravated sentence.

11. What is the factual basis for an aggravated sentence.

(Note: Where a represented defendant is pleading guilty without an aggravated sentence, use the plea petition form in Appendix A to these rules. Where a represented defendant's plea agreement includes an admission to facts to support an aggravated sentence, use both Appendix A and Appendix E.

Where an unrepresented defendant is pleading guilty without an aggravated sentence, use Appendix C to these rules. Where an unrepresented defendant's plea agreement includes an admission to facts to support an aggravated sentence, use both Appendix C and Appendix F.)

I, _____, defendant in the above entitled action do respectfully represent and state as follows:

1. I have pled guilty to or have otherwise been found guilty of the crime of _____.

2. I understand the presumptive guideline sentence for this offense is _____, and I could not be given an aggravated sentence greater than the presumptive sentence unless the prosecution proves facts in support of such an aggravated sentence.

3. I understand the prosecution is seeking a sentence greater than that called for in the sentencing guidelines. Specifically, I understand the sentence in this case will be _____ or will be left to the judge to decide.

4. I am represented by attorney _____ and:
a) I feel I have had sufficient time to discuss the issue of an aggravated sentence with my attorney.

b) I am satisfied my attorney is fully informed as to the facts related to an aggravated sentence and that my attorney has discussed possible defenses I have to an aggravated sentence.

c) I am satisfied that my attorney has represented my interests and has fully advised me about an aggravated sentence.

5. My attorney has told me and I understand that even though I have pled guilty to or been otherwise found guilty of the crime of _____, I have the right to deny the facts alleged by the prosecution in support of an aggravated sentence.

6. My attorney has told me and I understand that I am entitled to a trial by either a jury or a judge to determine whether an aggravated sentence may be imposed upon me.

7. My attorney has told me and I understand that at such trial I have the following rights:

- a) I am presumed not to be subject to an aggravated sentence.
- b) The prosecution must prove facts supporting an aggravated sentence to either a jury or a judge beyond a reasonable doubt.
- c) That before a jury could find facts supporting an aggravated sentence, all jurors would have to agree. That means the jury's decision must be unanimous.
- d) That at a trial before either a jury or a judge, the prosecution will be required to call witnesses in open court and in my presence, and I, through my attorney, will have the right to question the witnesses.
- e) That I may require any witnesses I think are favorable to me to appear and testify on my behalf.
- f) That I may testify at such a trial if I wish to, but that if I choose not to testify, neither the prosecution nor the judge could comment to the jury about the failure to testify.
- g) That if I admit the facts in support of an aggravated sentence, I will not have a trial by either a jury or a judge.

8. That with knowledge of my right to a trial on the facts in support of an aggravated sentence, I now waive my right to a trial.

9. I now waive my right not to testify and I will tell the judge about the facts which support an aggravated sentence.

11. Rule 19.04. Appearance of Defendant Before Court

Amend Rule 19.04, subd. 6 as follows:

Subd. 6. Notice by Prosecuting Attorney.

(1) Notice of Evidence and Identification Procedures. When the prosecution has (1) any evidence against the defendant obtained as a result of a search, search and seizure, wiretapping, or any form of electronic or mechanical eavesdropping, (2) any confessions, admissions or statements in the nature of confessions made by the defendant, (3) any evidence against the defendant discovered as the result of confessions, admissions or statements in the nature of confessions made by the defendant, or (4) when in the investigation of the case against the defendant, any identification procedures were followed, including but not limited to line-ups or other observations of the defendant and the exhibition of photographs of the defendant or of any other persons, the prosecuting attorney, on or before the date set for defendant's arraignment, shall notify the defendant or defense counsel in writing of such evidence and identification procedures.

(2) Notice of Additional Offenses. The prosecuting attorneys shall notify the defendant or defense counsel in writing of any additional offenses the evidence of which may be offered at the trial under any exceptions to the general exclusionary rule. The notice shall be given at the Omnibus Hearing under Rule 11 or as soon thereafter as the offense becomes known to the prosecuting attorney. Such additional offenses shall be described with sufficient particularity to enable the defendant to prepare for trial. The notice need not include offenses for which the defendant has been previously prosecuted, or those that may be offered in rebuttal of the defendant's character witnesses or as a part of the occurrence or episode out of which the offense charged in the indictment arose.

(3) Notice of Intent to Seek Aggravated Sentence. At least seven days prior to the Omnibus Hearing, or at such later time if permitted by the court upon good cause shown and upon such conditions as will not unfairly prejudice the defendant, the prosecuting attorney shall notify the defendant or defense counsel in writing of intent to seek an aggravated sentence. The notice shall include the grounds or statutes relied upon and a summary statement of the factual basis supporting the aggravated sentence.

12. Comments – Rule 19

Amend the comments to Rule 19 by adding a new paragraph after the existing twelfth paragraph of those comments as follows:

Rule 19.04, subd. 6(3), which establishes the notice requirements for a prosecuting attorney seeking an aggravated sentence in proceedings prosecuted by indictment, parallels Rule 7.03, which establishes those requirements for proceedings prosecuted by complaint. See the comments to that other rule. Also see Rule 1.04(d), which defines "aggravated sentence," and the comments to that rule.

13. Rule 26. 01 Trial by Jury or by the Court

Amend Rule 26.01, subd. 1 as follows:

Subd. 1. Trial by Jury.

(1) Right to Jury Trial.

(a) Offenses Punishable by Incarceration. A defendant shall be entitled to a jury trial in any prosecution for an offense punishable by incarceration. All trials shall be in the district court.

(b) Misdemeanors Not Punishable by Incarceration. In any prosecution for the violation of a misdemeanor not punishable by incarceration, trial shall be to the court.

(2) Waiver of Trial by Jury.

(a) Waiver—Generally on the Issue of Guilt. The defendant, with the approval of the court may waive jury trial on the issue of guilt provided the defendant does so personally in writing or orally upon the record in open court, after being advised by the court of the right to trial by jury and after having had an opportunity to consult with counsel.

(b) Waiver on the Issue of an Aggravated Sentence. Where an aggravated sentence is sought by the prosecution, the defendant, with the approval of the court, may waive jury trial on the facts in support of an aggravated sentence provided the defendant does so personally in writing or orally upon the record in open court, after being advised by the court of the right to a trial by jury and after having had an opportunity to consult with counsel.

(bc) Waiver When Prejudicial Publicity. The defendant shall be permitted to waive jury trial whenever it is determined that (a) the waiver has been knowingly and voluntarily made, and (b) there is reason to believe that, as the result of the dissemination of potentially prejudicial material, the waiver is required to assure the likelihood of a fair trial.

(3) Withdrawal of Waiver of Jury Trial. Waiver of jury trial may be withdrawn by the defendant at any time before the commencement of trial.

(4) Waiver of Number of Jurors Required by Law. At any time before verdict, the parties, with the approval of the court, may stipulate that the jury shall consist of a lesser number than that provided by law. The court shall not approve such a stipulation unless the defendant, after being advised by the court of the right to trial by a jury consisting of the number of jurors provided by law, personally in writing or orally on the record in open court agrees to trial by such reduced jury.

(5) Number Required for Verdict. A unanimous verdict shall be required in all cases.

(6) Waiver of Unanimous Verdict. At any time before verdict, the parties, with the approval of the court, may stipulate that the jury may render a verdict on the concurrence of a specified number of jurors less than that required by law or these rules. The court shall not approve such a stipulation unless the defendant, after being advised by the court of the right to a verdict on the concurrence of the number of jurors specified by law, personally in writing or orally on the record waives the right to such a verdict.

Amend Rule 26.01, subd. 3 as follows:

Subd. 3. Trial on Stipulated Facts. By agreement of the defendant and the prosecuting attorney, a ease determination of defendant's guilt, or the existence of facts to support an aggravated sentence, or both, may be submitted to and tried by the court based on stipulated facts. Before proceeding in this manner, the defendant shall acknowledge and waive the rights to testify at trial, to have the prosecution witnesses testify in open court in the defendant's presence, to question those prosecution witnesses, and to require any favorable witnesses to testify for the defense in court. The agreement and the waiver shall be in writing or orally on the record. If this procedure is utilized for determination of defendant's guilt and the existence of facts to support an aggravated sentence, there shall be a separate waiver as to each issue. Upon submission of the case on stipulated facts, the court shall proceed as on any other trial to the court. If the defendant is found guilty based on the stipulated facts, the defendant may appeal from the judgment of conviction and raise issues on appeal the same as from any trial to the court.

14. Rule 26.03. Procedures During Trial

Amend Rule 26.03, subd. 17 as follows:

Subd. 17. Motion for Judgment of Acquittal or Insufficiency of Evidence to Support an Aggravated Sentence.

(1) Motions Before Submission to Jury. Motions for directed verdict are abolished and motions for judgment of acquittal shall be used in their place. After the evidence on either side is closed, the court on motion of a defendant or on its initiative shall order the entry of a judgment of acquittal of one or more offenses charged in the tab charge, indictment or complaint if the evidence is insufficient to sustain a conviction of such offense or offenses. The court shall also, on motion of the defendant or on its initiative, order that any grounds for an aggravated sentence be withdrawn from consideration by the jury if the evidence is insufficient.

(2) Reservation of Decision on Motion. If the defendant's motion is made at the close of the evidence offered by the prosecution, the court may not reserve decision of the motion. If the defendant's motion is made at the close of all the evidence, the court may reserve decision on the motion, submit the case to the jury and decide the motion either before the jury returns a verdict or after it returns a verdict or is discharged without having returned a verdict. If the defendant's motion is granted after the jury returns a verdict of guilty, the court shall make written findings specifying its reasons for entering a judgment of acquittal.

(3) Motion After Discharge of Jury. If the jury returns a verdict of guilty or is discharged without having returned a verdict, a motion for judgment of acquittal or insufficiency of evidence to support an aggravated sentence may be made or renewed within 15 days after the jury is discharged or within such further time as the court may fix during the 15-day period. If a verdict of guilty is returned the court may on such motion set aside the verdict and enter judgment of acquittal, in which case the court shall make written findings specifying its reasons for entering a judgment of acquittal. If no verdict is returned, the court may enter judgment of acquittal. Such a motion is not barred by defendant's failure to make a similar motion prior to the submission of the case to the jury.

Amend Rule 26.03, subd. 18 as follows:

Subd. 18. Instructions.

(1) Requests for Instructions. At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. At the same time copies of such requests shall be furnished to all parties. The court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to the arguments to the jury, and such action shall be made a part of the record.

(2) Proposed Instructions. The court may, and upon request of any party shall, before the arguments to the jury, inform counsel what instructions will be given and all such instructions may be stated to the jury by either party as a part of the party's argument.

(3) Objections to Instructions. No party may assign as error any portion of the charge or omission therefrom unless the party objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict. The matter to which objection is made and the grounds of the objection shall be specifically stated. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing of the jury and, on request of any party, out of the presence of the jury. All objections to instructions and the rulings thereon shall be included in the record. All instructions, whether given or refused, shall be made a part of the record. An error in the instructions with respect to fundamental law or controlling principle may be assigned in a motion for a new trial though it was not otherwise called to the attention of the court.

(4) Giving of Instructions. The court in its discretion shall instruct the jury either before or after the arguments are completed except, at the discretion of the court, preliminary instructions need not be repeated. The instructions may be in writing and in the discretion of the court a copy may be taken to the jury room when the jury retires for deliberation.

(5) Contents of Instructions. In charging the jury the court shall state all matters of law which are necessary for the jury's information in rendering a verdict and shall inform the jury that it is the exclusive judge of all questions of fact. The court shall not comment on the evidence or the credibility of the witnesses, but may state the respective claims of the parties.

(6) Verdict Forms. The court shall submit appropriate forms of verdict to the jury for its consideration. Where an aggravated sentence is sought, the court shall submit the issue(s) to the jury by special interrogatory.

Amend Rule 26.03, subd. 19 as follows:

Subd. 19. Jury Deliberations and Verdict.

(1) Materials to Jury Room. The court shall permit the jury, upon retiring for deliberation, to take to the jury room exhibits which have been received in evidence, or copies thereof, except depositions and may permit a copy of the instructions to be taken to the jury room.

(2) Jury Requests to Review Evidence.

1. If the jury, after retiring for deliberation, requests a review of certain testimony or other evidence, the jurors shall be conducted to the courtroom. The court, after notice to the prosecutor and defense counsel, may have the requested parts of the testimony read to the jury and permit the jury to re-examine the requested materials admitted into evidence.

2. The court need not submit evidence to the jury for review beyond that specifically requested by the jury, but in its discretion the court may also have the jury review other evidence relating to the same factual issue so as not to give undue prominence to the evidence requested.

(3) Additional Instructions After Jury Retires.

1. If the jury, after retiring for deliberation, desires to be informed on any point of law, the jurors, after notice to the prosecutor and defense counsel, shall be conducted to the courtroom. The court shall give appropriate additional instructions in response to the jury's request unless:

(a) the jury may be adequately informed by directing their attention to some portion of the original instructions;

(b) the request concerns matters not in evidence or questions which do not pertain to the law of the case; or

(c) the request would call upon the judge to express an opinion upon factual matters that the jury should determine.

2. The court need not give additional instructions beyond those specifically requested by the jury, but in its discretion the court may also give or repeat other instructions to avoid giving undue prominence to the requested instructions.

3. The court after notice to the prosecutor and defense counsel may recall the jury after it has retired and give any additional instructions as the court deems appropriate.

(4) Deadlocked Jury. The jury may be discharged without having agreed upon a verdict if it appears that there is no reasonable probability of agreement.

(5) Polling the Jury. When a verdict on the issue of guilt is rendered and before the jury has been discharged, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court's initiative. When the jury has answered special interrogatories relating to an aggravated sentence, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court's initiative as to their answers. The poll(s) shall be conducted by the court or clerk of court who shall ask each juror individually whether the verdict announced is the juror's verdict. If ~~the~~either poll does not conform to the verdict, the jury may be directed to retire for further deliberation or may be discharged.

(6) Impeachment of Verdict. Affidavits of jurors shall not be received in evidence to impeach their verdict. A defendant who has reason to believe that the verdict is subject to impeachment shall move the court for a summary hearing. If the motion is granted the jurors shall be interrogated under oath and their testimony recorded. The admissibility of evidence at the hearing shall be governed by Rule 606(b) of the Minnesota Rules of Evidence.

(7) Partial Verdict. The court may accept a partial verdict when the jury has agreed on a verdict on less than all of the charges submitted, but is unable to agree on the remainder.

15. Rule 26.04. Postverdict Motions

Amend Rule 26.04, subd. 1 as follows:

Subd. 1. New Trial.

(1) Grounds. The court on written motion of the defendant may grant a new trial on the issue of guilt or the existence of facts to support an aggravated sentence, or both, on any of the following grounds:

1. If required in the interests of justice;
2. Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury, or on the part of the prosecution, or any order or abuse of discretion, whereby the defendant was deprived of a fair trial;
3. Misconduct of the jury or prosecution;
4. Accident or surprise which could not have been prevented by ordinary prudence;
5. Material evidence, newly discovered, which with reasonable diligence could not have been found and produced at the trial;
6. Errors of law occurring at the trial, and objected to at the time or, if no objection is required by these rules, assigned in the motion;
7. The verdict or finding of guilty is not justified by the evidence, or is contrary to law.

(2) Basis of Motion. A motion for new trial shall be made and heard on the files, exhibits and minutes of the court. Pertinent facts that would not be a part of the minutes may be shown by affidavit except as otherwise provided by these rules. A full or partial transcript of the court reporter's notes of the testimony taken at the trial or other verbatim recording thereof may be used on the hearing of the motion.

(3) Time for Motion. Notice of a motion for a new trial shall be served within 15 days after verdict or finding of guilty. The motion shall be heard within 30 days after the verdict or finding of guilty, unless the time for hearing be extended by the court within the 30-day period for good cause shown.

(4) Time for Serving Affidavits. When a motion for new trial is based on affidavits, they shall be served with the notice of motion. The opposing party shall have 10 days after such service in which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended by the court upon an order extending the time for hearing under this rule. The court may permit reply affidavits.

16. Comments – Rule 26

Amend the ninth, tenth, and eleventh paragraphs of the comments to Rule 26 as follows:

*Rule 26.01, subd. 1(2)(a) (Waiver of Trial by Jury ~~Generally on the Issue of Guilt~~) is based upon F.R.Crim.P. 23(a), ABA Standards, Trial by Jury, 1.2(b) (Approved Draft, 1968) and continues substantially present Minnesota law (Minnesota Statutes, section 631.01 (1971)) except that waiver of jury trial by the defendant requires the approval of the court. Rule 26.01, subd. 1(2)(b) establishes the procedure for waiver of a jury on the issue of an aggravated sentence. See Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296, 124 S.Ct. 2531 (2004) and State v. Shattuck, 704 N.W.2d 131 (Minn. 2005) as to the constitutional limitations on imposing aggravated sentences based on findings of fact beyond the elements of the offense and the conviction history. Also, see Rules 1.04 (d), 7.03, and 11.04 and the comments to those rules. Whether a defendant has waived or demanded a jury trial on the issue of guilt, that defendant is still entitled to a jury trial on the issue of an aggravated sentence and a valid waiver under Rule 26.01, subd. 1(2)(b) is necessary before an aggravated sentence may be imposed based on findings not made by jury trial.*

Rule 26.01, subd. 1(2)(~~b~~c) (Waiver When Prejudicial Publicity)

Under Rule 26.01, subd. 2(2)(~~b~~c), the defendant shall be permitted to waive jury trial if required to assure the likelihood of a fair trial when there has been a dissemination of potentially prejudicial material. (See ABA Standards, Fair Trial and Free Press, 3.3 (Approved Draft, 1968).)

Amend the sixty-eighth paragraph of the comments to Rule 26 as follows:

*Rule 26.03, subd. 17 (Motion for Judgment of Acquittal or Insufficiency of Evidence to Support an Aggravated Sentence) abolishing motions for directed verdict, and providing for motions for judgment of acquittal is taken from F.R.Crim.P. 29(a)(b)(c) and ABA Standards, Trial by Jury, 4.5(a)(b)(c) (Approved Draft, 1968). Such a motion by the defendant, if not granted, should not be deemed to withdraw the case from the jury or to bar the defendant from offering evidence. (See F.R.Crim.P. 29(a), ABA Standards, Trial by Jury, 4.5(a) (Approved Draft, 1968).) A defendant is also entitled to a jury determination of any facts beyond the elements of the offense or conviction history that might be used to aggravate the sentence. Blakely v. Washington, 542 U.S. 296, 124 S.Ct. 2531 (2004); State v. Shattuck, 704 N.W.2d 131 (Minn. 2005). If such a trial is held, the rule also provides that the defendant may challenge the sufficiency of the evidence presented.*

Amend the comments to Rule 26 by adding a new paragraph after the existing seventy-third paragraph of the comments (referring to Rule 26.03, subd. 18 (5)) as follows:

Rule 26.03, subd. 18(6) (Verdict Forms) requires that where aggravated sentence issues are presented to a jury, the court shall submit the issues to the jury by special interrogatory. For a sample form for that purpose see CRIMJIG 8.01 of the Minnesota

Criminal Jury Instruction Guide. When that is done, Rule 26.03, subd. 19(5) permits any of the parties to request that the jury be polled as to their answers.

17. Rule 27.03. Sentencing Proceedings

Amend Rule 27.03, subd. 1(A) as follows:

(A) At the time of, or within three days after a plea, finding or verdict of guilty of a felony, the court may order a presentence investigation and shall order that a sentencing worksheet be completed. As part of any presentence investigation and report, the court may order a mental or physical examination of the defendant. The court shall also then:

- (1) Set a date for the return of the report of the presentence investigation.
- (2) Set a date, time and place for the sentencing.
- (3) Order the defendant to return at such date, time and place.
- (4) If the facts ascertained at the time of a plea or through trial cause the judge to consider a mitigated departure from the sentencing guidelines appropriate, the court shall advise counsel of such consideration.
