Re: In re the Estate of Prince Rogers Nelson
Court File No. 10-PR-16-46

Dear Judge Eide:

As you know, I am the Administrator Pendente Lite of the Estate of Alfred Frank Alonzo Jackson, Jr. (hereinafter "Alfred Jackson Estate") that is pending in the Probate Division of the Circuit Court of Jackson County, Missouri.

As you also know, the Court recently received a letter from Sharon Nelson that was purportedly on behalf of all heirs of the Estate of Prince Rogers Nelson. Subsequently, Ms. Nelson provided documents that included a "term sheet" and business plan.

Counsel for the Personal Representative of the Prince Rogers Nelson Estate have now filed a formal response to the "heirs" documents. I am submitting this letter as my separate response on behalf of the Alfred Jackson Estate.

I want to clarify that I have not, on behalf of the Alfred Jackson Estate, agreed to any of the terms set forth in the term sheet; nor would I be in a position to do so without input from all stakeholders in that Estate and leave of Court.

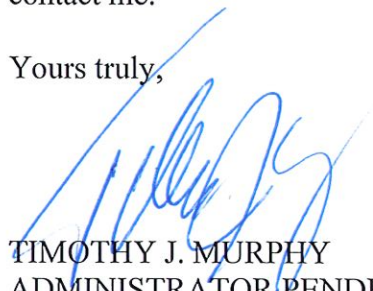

The term sheet purports to "memorialize the current intention of the parties". However, it does not state the "current intention" of the Alfred Jackson Estate. In any event, the term sheet itself provides that the parties are not bound by the terms thereof.

I do want to refer to one particular paragraph on the third page of the term sheet that specifically references the Alfred Jackson Estate. That paragraph states that the Alfred Jackson Estate (or its successor or successors in interest) will be responsible for its own share of the relevant estate, death and related taxes due to the IRS and Minnesota State tax authorities. Once again, the Alfred Jackson Estate has not agreed to that provision (nor would I have authority to do so) and has not agreed to be responsible for any of those taxes.
