

Overview

This document lists the E-MACS filing types and subtypes available for e-filing in the Minnesota Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, and Commitment Appeal Panels. Selecting the correct filing type and subtype ensures that your filing is routed and processed as quickly as possible. It also ensures that the correct filing fee, if any, is associated with your filing.

Tips for Finding the Right Filing Type and Subtype

If you don't know which filing type and subtype to select, try searching this document by pressing Ctrl+F and entering a key word. For example, to find filing options for a dismissal document, press Ctrl+F and type "dismiss" in the box. The search results will be highlighted, one at a time, in the tables. Move through each matching result in the document by clicking Next and Previous. Select the option that best matches the action you are trying to complete. Some types and subtypes are only available in certain jurisdictions. When searching, note which jurisdiction the type and subtype apply to.

Supreme Court	Motion	Dismiss
Supreme Court	Motion	Dismiss - Stipulated or Voluntary
Supreme Court	Motion	Dismiss Notice of Review
Supreme Court	Motion	Dismissal - Partial

You may include information explaining your selection by entering a comment on the Filing Information tab. The Clerk’s Office can update the type and/or subtype if needed.

The screenshot shows the 'APPELLATE E-FILING' interface. On the left, there are two summary panels: 'FILING INFORMATION' and 'CASE INFORMATION'. The 'FILING INFORMATION' panel shows Court: Supreme Court, Type: Motion - Extension of Time - Brief, and Total: $0.00. The 'CASE INFORMATION' panel shows Court: Supreme Court, Status: Decision, and Filed Date: 12/05/2017. The main area is titled 'FILING INFORMATION' and contains a 'Details' section with the following fields: Court (Supreme Court), Type (Motion), Subtype (Extension of Time - Brief), Filed on Behalf of (Party or Participant), Filed on Behalf of Other, Expedited Handling Requested, and Expedited Handling Comments. At the bottom of the details section, there is a 'Comments' field with a text area containing the prompt 'Add filing selection comments here'. A red box highlights the 'Filing Information' tab in the top navigation and the 'Comments' field at the bottom.

If you are still unsure of which type and subtype to use, select Correspondence and Other. The Clerk’s Office will determine the best option based on the uploaded documentation. Note, the Clerk’s Office is not able to automatically route this filing type for processing, so it may take longer than usual to receive notification that your filing has been accepted, but it will still be processed within 1-2 business days.

Court of Appeals Filing Types and Subtypes

Matters that are appealed to the Court of Appeals will have a file number that begins with “A,” followed by a two digit year, a dash, and a four digit file number (e.g., A18-0123). If there is a zero in the file number, you must include it when entering the case number in E-MACS in order to locate the file.

Supreme Court Filing Types and Subtypes

Matters that are appealed to the Supreme Court will have a file number that begins with “A,” followed by a two digit year, a dash, and a four digit file number (e.g., A18-0123). If there is a zero in the file number, you must include it when entering the case number in E-MACS in order to locate the file.

Administrative files (ADM files), are not associated with a specific appeal. In general, these files contain advisory committee reports or petitions for rule changes. The ADM files are also used by individuals who are providing public comments to the court during an open public comment period. For example, ADM10-8050 is the administrative file for the Rules of Public Access to Records of the Judicial Branch.

The options highlighted in grey should only be used when e-filing into an ADM matter.
