17. Spousal Maintenance

Spousal Maintenance is money paid by one spouse to the other for living expenses.

Check only one box:

Petitioner A and Petitioner B do not need spousal maintenance at this time, or in the future. Both parties agree that each party is fully capable of self-support and is not dependent upon the other for additional support in the form of spousal maintenance. Each party has made a full and fair disclosure of all income and assets and liabilities that each is responsible for, and agrees that this waiver is reasonable. The waiver is fair and equitable and is supported by the above consideration and was signed by both parties after full financial disclosure to each other.

Petitioner A or Petitioner B may need spousal maintenance in the future.

The court should reserve maintenance to allow either party to ask for spousal maintenance in the future because:

(explain why you want to do this)

Petitioner A needs spousal maintenance from Petitioner B now.

Petitioner A is _____ years of age, Petitioner A and Petitioner B have been married for _____ years. Petitioner A has the following education: _____

If YES:

- i. Notice of this request for name change has been given to the proper authority as required by Minn. Stat. § 259.13. (IMPORTANT NOTICE: If you are a convicted felon and you request a name change without following the requirements of Minn. Stat. § 259.13, using the new last name after your divorce is a gross misdemeanor)
- ii. An Affidavit of Service of the Notice marked Exhibit "A" has been submitted along with this Joint Petition

AGREEMENT OF PETITIONER A AND PETITIONER B

1. We have made this agreement to settle once and for all what we owe to each other and what we can expect to receive from each other. Each of us states that nothing has been held back, and that we have honestly included everything we could think of in listing our assets (everything we own and that is owed to us) and our debts (everything we owe) and that we believe the other has been open and honest in writing this agreement. We will sign and exchange any papers that might be needed to complete this agreement before or after the divorce.

2. Real Estate

Real estate includes a homestead, condominium, apartment building, vacant land, contract for deed interest, remainder interest, and more.

- Petitioner A owns no real estate by himself/herself or with anyone else.
- Petitioner B owns no real estate by himself/herself or with anyone else.

Petitioner A and/or Petitioner B own real estate as described on the Real Estate Attachment(s).

(Use a separate Real Estate Attachment sheet for each parcel of real estate. The Real Estate Attachment sheet(s) must be attached to this Joint Petition, even if Petitioner A and Petitioner B have no real estate.)

All Real Estate Attachments are incorporated into this Joint Petition, Agreement, Judgment and Decree and Petitioner A and Petitioner B agree that the real estate shall be awarded as stated on the Real Estate Attachment(s) in Attachment "C".

Check one:

- There is one Real Estate Attachment; OR
 There are _____ Real Estate Attachments.

3. Non-Marital Property

Non-marital Property means: (1) anything that you or your spouse owned before the marriage; (2) a gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance made by a third party to one but not to the other spouse; (3) anything that you or your spouse got in trade or in exchange for your non-marital property; (4) anything that is an increase in the value of non-marital property (STOP: Property can be part non-marital and part marital. Defining and valuing non-marital property can be complicated. If you have any concerns or questions, you should stop here and talk to an attorney.) (5) anything you or your spouse received after the valuation date set by the Court; or (6) anything defined as non-marital property by a valid antenuptial contract.

a. Petitioner A owns non-marital property: YES NO

If YES, Petitioner A and Petitioner B agree that that the following property is Petitioner A's non-marital property and shall be awarded to Petitioner A:

The total value of Petitioner A's non-marital property is _____

b. Petitioner B owns non-marital property: YES NO

If YES, Petitioner A and Petitioner B agree that that the following property is Petitioner B's non-marital property and shall be awarded to Petitioner B:

The total value of Petitioner B's non-marital property is _____

4. Division of Marital Property

Marital Property means almost anything that you or your spouse own that you or your spouse received during the marriage, even during the times that you and your spouse were separated. This includes real estate, boats, cabins, household goods, furniture, jewelry, and other things.

(See attached Asset Sheet listing all assets. The Asset Sheet must be attached to the Joint Petition, even if Petitioner A and Petitioner B have no assets.)

The Asset Sheet is incorporated into this Joint Petition, Agreement, Judgment and Decree and Petitioner A and Petitioner B agree to divide their marital property as listed by them in Attachment "A".

5. Division of Marital Debts

Marital Debts means debts incurred by you or your spouse during the marriage, even during the times that you and your spouse were separated. Do not include monthly expenses you pay in full each month, such as telephone and utilities.

(See attached Debt Sheet listing all debts. The Debt Sheet must be attached to the Joint Petition, even if Petitioner A and Petitioner B have no debts.)

The Debt Sheet is incorporated into this Joint Petition, Agreement, Judgment and Decree and Petitioner A and Petitioner B agree to divide their marital debts as listed by them in Attachment "B".

6. Spousal Maintenance

- a. Neither party is awarded spousal maintenance. Both Petitioners have waived any claims to spousal maintenance for the past, present, or future, and expressly waive all rights to modify their waivers of maintenance. This court is divested of jurisdiction to award or modify maintenance in the future pursuant to Karon v. Karon, 435 N.W. 2d 501 (Minn. 1989).

Consideration for this agreement is: (check all that apply)

- the parties' mutual waivers of maintenance
- the property settlement
- the parties' respective incomes and ability to earn income
- other:

The Court has reviewed this agreement and finds it to be fair and equitable under all of the circumstances, and supported by sufficient consideration including the parties' mutual waivers, incomes per year and the property division. Full disclosure of each party's financial circumstances has occurred.

- b. Maintenance is reserved because:

Either party can ask the court to order the payment of spousal maintenance in the future by filing a Motion stating a change in circumstances.

- c. Petitioner A Petitioner B shall pay permanent spousal maintenance to the other party in the amount of _____ per month starting on (date): _____
- d. Petitioner A Petitioner B shall pay temporary spousal maintenance to the other party in the amount of _____ per month starting on (date): _____ and ending on (date): _____ .

The monthly amount of permanent or temporary spousal maintenance shall be:

subject to the income withholding from the payor's income, regardless of source, by his or her employer, trustee, or other payor of funds and mailed to: Minnesota Child Support Payment Center, P.O. Box 64326, St. Paul, MN 55164-0326. If the person paying spousal support is self-employed, send payments to Minnesota Child Support Payment Center, P.O. Box 64306, St. Paul, MN 55164-0306. To start income withholding, Petitioner A or Petitioner B must apply for income withholding only services at the Child Support office in their County and must send a copy of this Order to the Child Support office. Until income withholding starts, the person owing maintenance shall pay the amount directly to the spouse receiving it.

OR

maintenance shall be paid directly by the spouse owing the maintenance to the spouse receiving it, payable on the _____ day of each month.

7. Medical and Dental Insurance for the Parties

Petitioner A and Petitioner B shall each provide for his or her own health and dental insurance. Either party may be eligible to extend for a limited time, at his/her own expense, the dependent coverage available under the other party's insurance plan, pursuant to federal and state statutes.

8. Other Agreements

BASED UPON THE ABOVE INFORMATION, Petitioner A and Petitioner B request that the Court issue a final judgment and decree terminating our marriage and ordering the terms of this Agreement.

READ and SIGN the Acknowledgment.

COURT ORDER

This case came before the Court without a hearing on the parties' Joint Petition for Dissolution of Marriage. The Court, having reviewed the file, makes the following Order:

1. The parties' Joint Petition and Attachments contains the necessary facts and includes an agreement on all issues before the Court. The real estate, if any, and the personal property of the parties is hereby awarded according to the division set out in their foregoing Joint Petition, which is made part of this final judgment. Debts and liabilities of the parties must be paid as provided in their foregoing Joint Petition. The parties are ordered to obey all of its provisions.
2. The marriage between the parties is dissolved and the parties are single.
3. Petitioner A's name is changed to:

First	Middle	Last

Petitioner B's name is changed to:

4. Each party shall execute any documents necessary to transfer real estate and personal property as awarded herein without further order of the Court. Should either party fail to execute the necessary documents, a certified copy of the Judgment and Decree shall operate to transfer title as awarded herein.
5. NOTICE: IF THE AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES INCLUDES AN AWARD OF SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE AND / OR CHILD SUPPORT, Appendix A is incorporated and made a part of this final judgment. Appendix A contains, among other things, provisions regarding payments to the Public Agency pursuant to Minnesota Statutes § 518A.50; Depriving Another of Custodial or Parental Rights - A Felony, Minnesota Statutes § 609.26; Rules of Support, Maintenance, Parenting Time; Parental Rights from Minnesota Statutes § 518.17, subdivision 3; Wage and Income Deduction of Maintenance and Child Support pursuant to Minnesota Statutes § 518A.53; Change of Address or Residence; Cost of Living Increase of Maintenance and Child Support pursuant to Minnesota Statutes § 518A.75; Judgments for Unpaid Maintenance and Child Support pursuant to Minnesota Statutes § 548.091; Medical Insurance and Expenses pursuant to Minnesota Statutes § 518A.41; and Minnesota Statutes § 259.115 regarding criminal penalties for failure to comply with felon name change law.

General Rule of Practice 125 notwithstanding, let Judgment be entered immediately.

The foregoing facts were found by me after due hearing and the Order thereon is recommended.

II. DEPRIVING ANOTHER OF CUSTODIAL OR PARENTAL RIGHTS -- A FELONY. A person may be charged with a felony who conceals a minor child or takes, obtains, retains, or fails to return a minor child from or to the child's parent (or person with custodial or parenting time rights), according to Minnesota Statutes, section 609.26. A copy of that section is available from any court administrator.

III. NONSUPPORT OF A SPOUSE OR CHILD – CRIMINAL PENALTIES. A person who fails to pay court-ordered child support or maintenance may be charged with a crime, which may include misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor, or felony charges, according to Minnesota Statutes, section 609.375. A copy of that section is available from any district court clerk.

IV. RULES OF SUPPORT, MAINTENANCE, PARENTING TIME.

- A. Payment of support or spousal maintenance is to be as ordered, and the giving of gifts or making purchases of food, clothing, and the like will not fulfill the obligation.
- B. Payment of support must be made as it becomes due, and failure to secure or denial of parenting time is NOT an excuse for nonpayment, but the aggrieved party must seek relief through a proper motion filed with the court.
- C. Nonpayment of support is not grounds to deny parenting time. The party entitled to receive support may apply for support and collection services, file a contempt motion, or obtain a judgment as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 548.091.
- D. The payment of support or spousal maintenance takes priority over payment of debts and other obligations.
- E. A party who accepts additional obligations of support does so with the full knowledge of the party's prior obligation under this proceeding.
- F. Child support or maintenance is based on annual income, and it is the responsibility of a person with seasonal employment to budget income so that payments are made throughout the year as ordered.
- G. A Parental Guide to Making Child-Focused Parenting Time Decisions is available from any court administrator.
- H. The nonpayment of support may be enforced through the denial of student grants; interception of state and federal tax refunds; suspension of driver's, recreational, and occupational licenses; referral to the department of revenue or private collection agencies; seizure of assets, including bank accounts and other assets held by financial institutions; reporting to credit bureaus; interest charging, income withholding, and contempt proceedings; and other enforcement methods allowed by law.

- I. The public authority may suspend or resume collection of the amount allocated for child care expenses if the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.40, subdivision 4, are met.
- J. The public authority may remove or resume a medical support offset if the conditions of section 518A.41, subdivision 16, are met.
- K. The public authority may suspend or resume interest charging on child support judgments if the conditions of section 548.091, subdivision 1a, are met.

V. MODIFYING CHILD SUPPORT. If either the obligor or obligee is laid off from employment or receives a pay reduction, child support may be modified, increased, or decreased. Any modification will only take effect when it is ordered by the court, and will only relate back to the time that a motion is filed. Either the obligor or obligee may file a motion to modify child support, and may request the public agency for help. UNTIL A MOTION IS FILED, THE CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION WILL CONTINUE AT THE CURRENT LEVEL. THE COURT IS NOT PERMITTED TO REDUCE SUPPORT RETROACTIVELY.

VI. PARENTAL RIGHTS FROM MINNESOTA STATUTES, SECTION 518.17, SUBDIVISION 3. UNLESS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BY THE COURT:

- A. Each party has the right of access to, and to receive copies of, school, medical, dental, religious training, police reports, and other important records and information about the minor children. Each party has the right of access to information regarding health or dental insurance available to the minor children. Presentation of a copy of this order to the custodian of a record or other information about the minor children constitutes sufficient authorization for the release of the record or information to the requesting party.
- B. Each party has the right to be informed by the other party as to the name and address of the school of attendance of the minor children. Each party has the right to be informed by school officials about the children's welfare, educational progress and status, and to attend school and parent teacher conferences. The school is not required to hold a separate conference for each party.
- C. Each party has the right to be notified by the other party of an accident or serious illness of a minor child, including the name of the health care provider and the place of treatment.
- D. Each party has the right to be notified by the other party if the minor child is the victim of an alleged crime, including the name of the investigating law enforcement officer or agency. There is no duty to notify if the party to be notified is the alleged perpetrator.
- E. Each party has the right of reasonable access and telephone contact with the minor children.

VII. WAGE AND INCOME DEDUCTION OF SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE. Child support and / or spousal maintenance may be withheld from income, with or without notice to the person obligated to pay, when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.53, have been met. A copy of that section is available from any court administrator.

VIII. CHANGE OF ADDRESS OR RESIDENCE. Unless otherwise ordered, each party shall notify the other party, the court, and the public authority responsible for collection, if applicable, of the following information within ten days of any change: residential and mailing address, telephone number, driver's license number, social security number, and name, address, and telephone number of the employer.

IX. COST OF LIVING INCREASE OF SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE. Basic support and / or spousal maintenance may be adjusted every two years based upon a change in the cost of living (using the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, consumer price index Mpls. St. Paul, for all urban consumers (CPI-U), unless otherwise specified in this order) when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.75, are met. Cost of living increases are compounded. A copy of Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.75, and forms necessary to request or contest a cost of living increase are available from any court administrator.

X. JUDGMENTS FOR UNPAID SUPPORT; INTEREST. According to Minnesota Statutes, section 548.091:

- A. If a person fails to make a child support payment, the payment owed becomes a judgment against the person responsible to make the payment by operation of law on or after the date the payment is due, and the person entitled to receive the payment or the public agency may obtain entry and docketing of the judgment without notice to the person responsible to make the payment.
- B. Interest begins accruing on a payment or installment of child support whenever the unpaid amount due is greater than the current support due.

XI. JUDGMENTS FOR UNPAID MAINTENANCE. A judgment for unpaid spousal maintenance may be entered and docketed when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 548.091, are met. A copy of that section is available from any court administrator.

XII. ATTORNEY FEES AND COLLECTION COSTS FOR ENFORCEMENT OF CHILD SUPPORT. A judgment for attorney fees and other collection costs incurred in enforcing a child support order will be entered against the person responsible to pay support when the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, section 518A.735, are met. A copy of that section and forms necessary to request or contest these attorney fees and collection costs are available from any court administrator.

XIII. PARENTING TIME EXPEDITOR PROCESS. On request of either party or on its own motion, the court may appoint a parenting time expeditor to resolve parenting time disputes under Minnesota Statutes, section 518.1751. A copy of that section and a description of the expeditor process is available from any court administrator.

XIV. PARENTING TIME REMEDIES AND PENALTIES. Remedies and penalties for wrongful denial of parenting time are available under Minnesota Statutes, section 518.175, subdivision 6. These include compensatory parenting time; civil penalties; bond requirements; contempt; and reversal of custody. A copy of that subdivision and forms for requesting relief are available from any court administrator.

In addition to the Notices on pages above, the following NOTICE applies to all orders addressing custody pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 518.17, subd. 3a.

NOTICE

EACH PARTY IS GRANTED THE FOLLOWING RIGHTS:

1. Right of access to, and to receive copies of, school, medical, dental, religious training, police reports, and other important records and information about the minor children.
2. Right of access to information regarding health or dental insurance available to the minor children.
3. Right to be informed by the other party as to the name and address of the school of attendance of the minor children.
4. Right to be informed by school officials about the children's welfare, educational progress and status, and to attend school and parent-teacher conferences. The school is not required to hold a separate conference for each party, unless attending the same conference would result in violation of a court order prohibiting contact with a party.
5. Right to be notified by the other party of an accident or serious illness of a minor child, including the name of the health care provider and the place of treatment.
6. Right to be notified by the other party if the minor child is the victim of an alleged crime, including the name of the investigating law enforcement officer or agency. There is no duty to notify if the party to be notified is the alleged perpetrator.
7. Right to reasonable access and telephone or other electronic contact with the minor children.
