Custodian's Request to Keep Petitioner's Child's Address Confidential (OFP107-C)

Minn. Stat. § 518B.01, subd. 3b

In an Order for Protection case, the petitioner or a custodian of the petitioner's child may request that the court keep the petitioner's minor child's address confidential. Under Minn. Stat. § 518B.01, subd. 3b, if an address is confidential, the information will not be available to Respondent or the public. The information may be disclosed only to court staff or law enforcement for purposes of service of process, conducting an investigation, or enforcing an order. Your request only applies to this Order for Protection (OFP) case. There may be other documents already filed in this case, or in other court cases, where the address is public and will remain public.

Note: The address will not be listed on the Order for Protection and may be more difficult to enforce the order for any violations occurring at or near the address.
