Respondent (first, middle, last)

In an Order for Protection case, the court must keep an address and telephone number confidential in this case, if you ask. Under Minn. Stat. §518B.01, subd. 3b, if an address or phone is confidential, the information will not be available to the Respondent or the public. The information may be disclosed only to court staff or law enforcement for purposes of service of process, conducting an investigation, or enforcing an order. Your request only applies to this Order for Protection (OFP) case. There may be other documents already filed in this case, or in other court cases, where your address is public and will remain public.

I am the Petitioner in this case.

1. Choose one of the boxes below:

I am asking for an OFP and am asking the court to keep an address and/or phone number confidential.
