CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Minn. Stat. § 481.13, subd. 1(a) provides that: "An attorney has a lien for compensation whether the agreement for compensation is expressed or implied (1) upon the cause of action from the time of the service of the summons in the action, or the commencement of the proceeding...."

2. Minn. Stat. § 525.491 extends this provision for attorneys appearing on behalf of an heir in a probate proceeding, providing:

“When any attorney at law has been retained to appear for any heir or devisee, such attorney may perfect a lien upon the client’s interest in the estate for compensation for such services as may have been rendered respecting such interest, by serving upon the personal representative before distribution is made, a notice of intent to claim a lien for agreed compensation, or the reasonable value of services. The perfecting of such a lien, as herein provided, shall have the same effect as the perfecting of a lien as provided in section 481.13, and such lien may be enforced and the amount thereupon determined in the manner therein provided.”

3. If the attorney did not represent the client at the time of the commencement of the proceeding, the lien arises at the time the attorney first appears in the proceedings. Williams v. Dow Chemical Co., 415 N.W.2d 20, 25-26 (Minn. Ct. App. 1987).

4. The value of a cause-of-action attorney’s lien is determined based on the terms of the fee provisions of a retainer agreement. Thomas A. Foster & Assocs., LTD v. Paulson, 699 N.W.2d 1, 6 (Minn. Ct. App. 2005).

5. An attorney holding a cause-of-action lien need not file separate notice of the attorney’s lien for that attorney’s lien to have priority over third-party claims. City of Oronoco v. Fitzpatrick Real Estate, LLC, 883 N.W.2d 592, 596 (Minn. 2016).

6. Once formed, a cause-of-action attorney’s lien exists until it is satisfied and is not extinguished by the entry of judgment on the cause of action. Williams, 415 N.W.2d at 26 (citing Desaman v. Butler Bros., 131 N.W. 463, 464 (Minn. 1911)).

7. Pursuant to Minn. Stat. §§ 481.13, subd. 1(a) and 525.491, GPM has established a valid and enforceable cause-of-action attorney’s lien on any proceeds that Ms. Nelson receives from the Estate and on any distribution, award, judgment, settlement, or recovery she receives or that is obtained on her behalf in her capacity as a beneficiary of the Estate, solely to the extent of GPM’s reasonable attorney’s fees and costs incurred on Ms. Nelson’s behalf and that remain unpaid at the time of any such distribution to Ms. Nelson or at the conclusion of GPM's representation of Ms. Nelson.

8. The reasonable amount of GPM's cause-of-action attorney's lien is $116,652.11, exclusive of collection costs.

9. GPM's cause-of-action attorney's lien attached and was effective against third parties as of April 25, 2016, when GPM first appeared in the Proceeding on Ms. Nelson's behalf. City of Oronoco v. Fitzpatrick Real Estate, LLC, 883 N.W.2d 592, 596 (Minn. 2016).

Walker, LLC, B&T and other third parties, excluding the attorney's lien of Holland & Knight, LLP, which attorney's lien shall share coordinate priority with GPM's cause of action attorney's lien.

11. Pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 481.13, subd. 1(a), H&K has established a valid and enforceable cause-of-action attorney's lien on any proceeds that Ms. Nelson receives from the Estate and on any distribution, award, judgment, settlement, or recovery she receives from any source, or that is obtained on Ms. Nelson's behalf or for her benefit, regardless of whether such distribution, award, judgment, settlement, or recovery is received or obtained in her capacity as a beneficiary of the Estate, solely to the extent of H&K's reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred on Ms. Nelson's behalf and that remain unpaid at the time of any such distribution to Ms. Nelson or at the conclusion of H&K's representation of Ms. Nelson.

12. The reasonable amount of H&K's cause-of-action attorney's lien is $717,254.37.
