Re: Estate of Prince Rogers Nelson, Court File No.: 10-PR-16-46

Dear Judge Eide:

We write on behalf of CAK Entertainment, Inc. and Charles Koppelman (together, "CAK") in response to Your Honor's October 30, 2018 Order for Submissions, in which Your Honor requested that any interested parties provide submissions in response to the October 23, 2018 letter filed by the Second Special Administrator seeking clarification of the Court's October 17, 2018 Amended Order Granting Bremer Trust N.A.'s ("Bremer") Motion to Lift the Stay of Discharge and Approve Payments of Attorneys' Fees and Costs.

On February 6, 2018, CAK submitted its Response to Bremer's initial Motion to Lift the Stay of Discharge and Approve Payments of Attorneys' Fees and Costs (the "CAK Response"). In the CAK Response, CAK noted that there exists no legal or factual basis to discharge Bremer from liability to any party as regards Bremer's special administration of the Estate. Further, CAK argued that, if Bremer is discharged to any extent, such discharge should not limit or otherwise impact CAK's rights to bring claims against Bremer and/or its agents, should CAK find that it has a basis to assert such claims. In response to Your Honor's instant request for submissions, CAK respectfully refers the Court to the CAK Response, reiterates the positions set forth therein, and hereby reserves all rights.

Moreover, CAK respectfully requests that, should the Court determine that any individual or entity retained by Bremer in connection with Bremer's special administration of the Estate be discharged from liability, such discharge should apply to all individuals or entities retained by
