

STATE OF MINNESOTADISTRICT COURT*COUNTY OF CARVER*FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT
CASE TYPE: PROBATE DIVISION

In the Matter of:

Case File No.: 10-PR-16-46

Estate of Prince Rogers Nelson,

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO FILE
DECLARATION UNDER SEALDecedent.

Pursuant to Minnesota Rule of Civil Procedure 11.06(c) and the Court's Order Regarding the Filing of Certain Documents Under Seal, dated January 23, 2017, and Minnesota Rule of General Practice 11.06(c), non-party Michael Lythcott hereby moves the Court for leave to file his declaration, filed in support of his Motion for Return of Flash Drive and Motion for Costs, under seal.

Sealing of the declaration is authorized and justified by law. See Minn. R. of Public Access to Records of Judicial Branch 4; Minn. R. Civ. P. 26.03(a)(7); Minn. R. of Gen. Prac. 11.06(c); In re GlaxoSmithKline, PLC, 732 N.W.2d 257, 268-69 (Minn. 2007); Minneapolis Star & Tribune Co. v. Schumacher, 392 N.W.2d 197, 202 (Minn. 1986).

The declaration refers to confidential business transactions and the procedures and administration of confidential information that belongs to the Estate. For example:

- The declaration discusses Mr. Lythcott's disclosure of confidential information that resulted in the Court's February 13, 2019 Order Regarding Estate Confidential Information. It is our understanding that a significant portion of the submissions preceding this Order were filed under seal. For this reason, it remains somewhat unclear what matters the Court considers public and in an effort to protect all parties' information, Mr. Lythcott request that the declaration be placed under seal.

Any presumption of public access to these filings is outweighed by the need to protect not only the confidential information, but also the mechanisms by which this information is exchanged and protected. This is especially true where, as here, the Estate has alleged that Mr. Lythcott violated the NDA he signed with the Estate. Because Mr. Lythcott is not a party to this litigation and numerous filings have already been made under seal, Mr. Lythcott, in an abundance of caution, seeks to protect not only his own confidential information, but also the confidential information of the parties and their associates in this matter. Mr. Lythcott will publicly file a redacted version of his declaration.

For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Lythcott respectfully requests that the Court grant the Motion to File Declaration Under Seal.
