In Re: Standing Orders That Have Become Outdated

ORDER

WHEREAS numerous Fourth Judicial District Family Court "standing orders" continue to remain on the books despite intervening legislative changes, personnel changes, funding changes, or other subsequent events that have rendered them outdated;

WHEREAS the Fourth Judicial District Family Court met on August 19th, 2008 and unanimously agreed to discontinue mandatory education for divorcing parents and their children in uncontested cases

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The following standing orders of the Fourth Judicial District Family Court are hereby vacated:
 - a. August 14, 1997 Order by Chief Judge Mabley and Presiding Family Court Judge Eagon Re: Use of Child Education and Consultation Program in Dissolution Cases Involving Minor Children;
 - b. June 3, 2003 Order by Family Court Presiding Judge Porter In Re: Use of Parent Education Programs in Dissolution Cases Involving Minor Children.

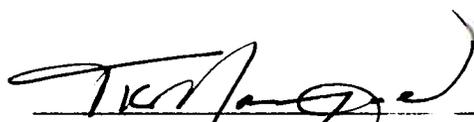

Dated: ~~August 25, 2008~~ September 24, 2008
